

Biographical Record

OLIVE LOUISE ROGERS nee Ashbrook (1912 – 2004)

Represented the London County Association on the Central Council from 1946-1986 and attended 39 meetings

Born at Whittington, Staffordshire on 31st October 1912.

Learnt to ring at Isleworth in September 1931 Tower captain 1937-1943

Subsequently also attached to Southwark Cathedral.

Rang her first peal at Isleworth on 29th September 1934.

Rang 814 peals.

Served as Master 1970-1973 and Secretary 1940-1946 and 1973-1980 of the London County Association.

Member of the Society of Royal Cumberland Youths.

Guider and county trainer in Girl Guide Association.

Member of Isleworth PCC 1938-2004.

Married Harold Rogers 27 September 1941.

Children: Christopher and Patricia.

Occupation: School teacher.

Died on 16th January 2004.

