PEAL RINGERS, 1949

WE make no excuse for presenting in this issue the records of the leading peal ringers of 1949, although there are some of our readers who would prefer such records to be unpublished and unsung. They are obsessed with the opening words of the Epistle of last Sunday, 'Be not wise in your own conceits,' and assume that achievement is a pandering to the vanities of the flesh, overlooking the sheer enjoyment of achievement.

The past year has been phenomenal in the number of peals rung, and the fact that five ringers have rung 100 peals or more is an indication of the degree of enthusiasm attained. The history of ringing contains very few century makers in one year, viz.: Alfred W. Grimes, 136 in 1913 and 114 in 1932; J. W. Washbrook, 127 in 1888; G. R. Pye, 100 in 1933, Bertram Prewett in 1912; and George E. Fearn, 108 in 1948. The record of Mr. Harold Poole is unique with 143 peals to his credit, of which over 100 were conducted by him. Perhaps more striking is his performance of 100 peals in the last six months of the year. The president of the Leicester Diocesan Guild has set a pace that is not likely to be surpassed for many years to come. There is also quality among his peals, which indicates not only his personal powers but the clever band of ringers associated with him at Leicester Cathedral.

High on the list as regards the total number of peals are those two Bournemouth enthusiasts, Daniel T. Matkin and Mrs. F. J. Marshallsay, with 121 and 113 peals respectively. Their peals were mainly 'in hand.' At 23, Wellington Road, no fewer than 103 handbell peals were rung during the year, in which 30 ringers participated—13 'locals' and 17 visitors. Mrs. Marshallsay is the first woman to reach the century mark in a year. She is at business during the daytime and has also a home to look after. In the previous year she rang 43 peals.

The Leicester Guild have also another century maker in Mr. Alfred Ballard, of Burbage, with 118 peals to his credit. This has been accomplished without neglecting the work of the Guild. Mr. Ballard has attended every meeting in his own district as well as Guild general meetings and special practices for the district. He was one of the participants in the recent four peals in one day.

Another Leicestershire man, Walter P. Whitehead, a staunch supporter of the Midland County Guild, also reached the century mark. His 100 peals include three long lengths of Bristol, 9,344, 10,976 and 13,024, all of which he conducted. In two of these Ernest Morris participated. This Leicester veteran is the only 1,000 peal man to appear in this year's list, and his 88 ranged from five to 12-bell peals.

Mr. George E. Fearn, who headed last year's list with 108 peals, rang 91 this year, of which 88 were on tower bells. His tower-bell record for 1949 was only exceeded by Mr. Harold J. Poole, with 102. Three other members of St. Martin's Guild figure in the list—John Pinfold 56, Henry H. Fearn 45, and Arthur D. Cook 43.

The Leicester Guild is rich in youngsters of promise who will have an important influence on the Exercise in years to come. Alan Cattell, who was associated with many of Mr. Ernest Morris' peals, rang in 77. The Leicester Cathedral band had a strong contingent, with Alan Jacques (18) 76, Herrick B. Bowley 70, Peter J. Staniforth 64, Shirley Burton 56, John R. Smith 55, Sidney O. Cheney 51, Miss Jill Poole 50, and Brian G. Warwick (who rang his first peal on November 6th, 1948) 42.

As usual, the Chester Diocesan Guild also made a valuable contribution to ringing. In the list are Walter Allman (Runcorn), John Worth (Macclesfield), John Bibby (Frodsham), C. Kenneth Lewis, Dr. J. C. E. Simpson (Sale) and Ralph G. Edwards (Birkenhead).

An interesting list has Arthur V. Pearson, of Wolverhampton. Of his 55 peals, 40 were in Surprise methods, and included 23 different methods or extension. His list contains 155 ringers who had obtained 'stars' for 'first in the method.' Two Stoke-on-Trent ringers deserve congratulation for their year's work in Frederick W. Grocott (41) and Frederick E. Wilshaw (42). Oxford University ringers will note with satisfaction the name of Wilfrid F. Moreton (54), of Hereford, in the list. F. W. Frank Trotman, of Nuneaton, has improved on his last year's total of 40, reaching 52, and including the three long lengths of Bristol.

Heading the East Anglian list is Nolan Golden, who conducted 60 peals. In most of his peals he was accompanied by George Sayer. The Suffolk Guild had three representatives, George A. Fleming, William J. Button and 14-year-old George W. Pipe, whose mother's name appeared in last year's list. The Lincoln Diocesan Guild had two in the honours list, Jack L. Millhouse (52) and George E. Feirn (44). The sole representative of London and the Home Counties is Philip A. Corby, with 41 peals. He has maintained an average of 51 peals a year over the last five years. From Ireland appears the name of Fred E. Dukes (41), with eight 'firsts' on tower bells. Mention should also be made of Howard Howell with 41 and Ernest W. Rawson (Leicester) with 40.

LATE NEWS

Coventry Diocesan Guild have accepted the design of Mr. W. B.
Ellender, of Stoke Coventry, for a Guild badge.

Farnham District of Guildford Diocesan Guild had an increase of 25 members last year.

The Royal Exchange Chimes, London,
are now electrically operated. The Lord Mayor officially inaugurated the new equipment last Friday.

Congratulations to the new band at Mapledur-ham, Oxon. They started from scratch on February 14th and have now rung their first peal. Handbell ringing is also indulged in. Carolling on four evenings before Christmas (playing tunes and Grandsire on the handbells), £13 8s. was raised for tower funds.
Hopes are entertained for progress in other methods during 1950.

Mr. Michael D. Staniforth, who is 17 years of age, took part in three peals of Surprise (Major, Royal and Maximus) in a day. Congratulations.

Mr. A. S. Pyke has completed 50 years as a ringer at Trull, Somerset, 27 years of which he has been captain. A peal of Stedman Doubles, his favourite method, was rung on December 31st in honour of the event.

An unusual feature during the peal at Whitworth, Lancs, rung for the centenary of the church, was that during the ringing the church, including the tower, was floodlit. Mr. Heginbottom, who rang his first peal, was responsible for the floodlighting.

The peal of Plain Bob Triples at Bengoe, Herts, by the Bengoe Society was the first peal on the bells for nearly 15 years. This band decided to go over to change ringing in February, 1948, and there has been practically no service at which changes have not been rung.

Mr. C. W. Pipe, of Grundisburgh, is arranging, in co-operation with Mr. J. Dyke, four days' ringing in Somerset during July or possibly August. He plans to visit seven or eight towers a day. No peals will be attempted unless specially requested. He requires about 10 good ringers to complete the party. The headquarters will be either at Glastonbury or Wells. The journey will be made by coach, leaving Clopton about 8 a.m. on the Monday.

BELFRY GOSSIP

Mr. George Cross was re-elected Master of the Royal Society of Cumberland Youths on Saturday. Mr. Peter N. Bond is the new secretary of the Society, Mr. G. W.
Steele carrying on in the less onerous role of treasurer.

Another instance of a son conducting his father's first peal occurred at All Saints', Basingstoke, on October 1st, 1938, when Mr.
C. W. Munday called the first peal of the late Mr. H. Munday.

This is the season of ringers' suppers. The Vicar of Wellow (Somerset) has revived the function after a lapse of 40 years, due to the bells being silent through 'death-watch' in the tower. For the first time the Vicar of Christ Church, Ebbw Vale, and his wardens entertained the ringers and their wives on January 14th.

Mr. William Packer, of Lewisham, celebrated his engagement by standing in a peal of Double Norwich, his second peal, at Eynsford. The peal could not be attempted at Lewisham, as the 7th bell there has been condemned for ringing owing to a cracked gudgeon plate.
An earlier attempt was made at Cubitt Town, but was lost because the ringers concerned thought one of the bobs sounded like the rattling of a rope guide and so ignored it!

Mr. Albert F. Hughes, of Bangor, who unfortunately is in the County Hospital, Bangor, writes of Mr. Harry Withers: He never forgot a face he had once seen. I was with him the whole of the time he took down the lead ends of the long peal of London at Kingsworthy.
When the peal was completed he handed the figures to Gabriel Lindoff and said, 'That's the peal you have rung to-day.' There was a sealed copy at 'The Bell News' office. I took back to Birmingham two borrowed bell ropes after the peal.

LEADING PEAL RINGERS OF 1949

Five Pass the Century Mark

The year 1949 was unprecedented in the history of peal ringing. No fewer than five ringers rang 100 peals or over, and Mr. Harold J. Poole accomplished no fewer than 143 peals, a feat never before having been accomplished in the history of ringing. Mrs. F. J. Marshall-say, of Bournemouth, had the honour to be the first woman to ring 100 peals in a year.

The following table has been compiled from returns submitted by ringers in response to our appeal:—

FOUR PEALS OF MINOR IN 1934

Dear Sir,—On May 21st, 1934, six members of the Herts Association rang four peals of Minor in one day, at Anster, Great Munden, Ardley and Walkern, Herts. Each peal had seven different extents, ringers being Stanley Carter, A. Lawrence, W. A. Tack, R. Howard (conducted 1), B. Patmore (conducted 1), Sidney Carter (conducted 2). I am sorry that I cannot tell you the volume number of 'The Ringing World' that they were published in.—I am, Yours faithfully, Hertford, Herts. SIDNEY F. CARTER.

Christmas Quiz Answers

Appended are the answers to our Christmas Quiz:—

1. St. Editha, Tamworth, Staffs.
2. St. Mark, Worsley, Lancs.
3. Sacred Trinity, Salford, Manchester.
4. The six at his church of Fittleworth, Sussex.
5. St. Lawrence, Appleby, Westmorland.
6. St. Patrick's Cathedral, Dublin ('R.W.', 1949, p. 453).
7. On meridian, All Saints', Danehill, Sussex (ring of 4 bells); 69 yards west of meridian, St. Andrew's, Swavesey, Cambs. (ring of six bells); 80 yards west of meridian, St. John-the-Baptist, Somersham, Hunts (ring of 6 bells); 115 yards west of meridian, Waltham Abbey, Essex (ring of 12 bells). These are the nearest with bells.
8. St. Matthew's, Auckland, New Zealand. The New Year starts on the Date Line and moves west.
9. 16. 5 to finish a 720. An extra touch of 6 singles. Then 5 to commence a 720. This is quite within rules.
10. 4, 6, 8 in Major. (2, 5, 7 on 7 bells also strictly true, but unlikely.)
11. 72.
12. 1920.
13. 168 changes (7 leads).
14. Blackpool Tower.
15. Sticking plaster; Marlinspike; Smelling salts; Castor oil.
16. A certain young ringer of Deal
Was blowing his nose in a peal.
The hanky got fanned
By a sneeze of large brand,
And flew up and jammed in the wheel.
There was a young lady of Peel
Got her rope-end mixed up round her heel.
The conductor said 'Stand,'
But the rest of the band
Went on ringing and finished the peal.
There was a peal-grabber of Seale,
Rang all day and all night with no meal.
When rounds came as planned
He didn't say 'Stand,'
But launched out again with great zeal.

Herts.

MARRIAGE OF MISS RICHARDSON

The wedding took place at St. Peter's, Parkstone, between Miss Dorothy T. Richardson and Mr. Ralph Gardiner on Jan. 14th. As St. Peter's has only tubular bells, handbells were rung afterwards by the bride and her three sisters. Mr. E. H. Lewis and Miss Betty Spice also joined in ringing Bob Major.

The bridal toast was proposed by the bride's uncle, Mr. E. H. Lewis. Among the presents was a dinner bell cast in the shape of a church bell, presented by Mr. A. A. Hughes, of the Whitechapel Foundry.

Mr. and Mrs. Gardiner will be living in Bristol.

The University of Bristol Society rang its first peal of Major as a compliment to the bride, who was one of its stalwart members.

MAINLY FOR BEGINNERS (3)

(A Series of Open Letters)

Dear Beginners,—It seems that other ringers—even instructors—are reading our correspondence! And finding this feature interesting and useful. But some, possibly, think little of it and some may even consider what they find new to them as 'quite daft.' Still, the steps in tuition here detailed will prove their worth, and, in any case, we like to hear all views. As we said in our first letter, there are more ways than one of teaching a pupil ringer, and what proves excellent for some learners under one instructor may not be so successful under another, and vice versa. One thing is most encouraging: owing to the increased interest our new-found friend, Tom Truetouch, is running our special practice night for beginners only. So let's get along to the tower.

This week Tom begins with a short talk, reminding us that he started our training by showing us the bells themselves and then letting us handle one—gently, in chiming attempt only. He maintains this has proved best in awakening early a keen and intelligent interest in all his successful pupils, and he then surprises us by saying we shall not touch a bell-rope again during these next two 'practices.'

Now we all come under a series of quick-fire questions as Tom asks us what we remember from last week of each of these: Frame, pit, headstock, bearings, stay, slider, stop, wheel, rim-channel or wheel-groove, sally, rope-end, chiming, raising, clappered wrong, ringing, bell up, bell set, bell raised, lowering, bell down, Treble, Tenor, tone-telling striking, ringing-mat, correct stance, balance-base, and 'Cease!' Tom is not very lenient, I'm afraid, with those who have forgotten. Indeed, he tells us that any of us who haven't made up our minds, by the end of this practice, to learn thoroughly from week to week, determining to stick to it so as to become reliable change ringers, had better drop out; thus avoiding a waste of everyone else's time and making way for others.

Having introduced our other new friend, Mary Makebob, to this week's newcomers, Tom tells us she is the most promising of his last batch of pupils and that he is training her as a Beginners' Instructor. They are now going to show us what the rope action of 'ringing proper' looks like, Mary ringing, while Tom explains.

We get up from our seats round the ringing chamber and go and stand opposite the rope of No. 3 that we chimed last week, and watch Mary carefully as she takes her stance at that rope. Tom reminds us that to 'ring' a bell she must have been 'raised' from 'down' to 'up'; and that when raised she swings full circle, her large wheel taking up the rope until the full length is in use. So Mary will have to undo the rope-end loop for this demonstration.

Setting the mat and taking her stance, Mary coils the rope-end in her left hand and grasps the sally, well up, with both hands. Tom tells us not to worry about the coiling up at this stage, nor how it is let out as the bell rises, since we shall learn this after we have acquired bell control. As Mary's chiming action extends into longer pulls, with the sally rising higher and higher and the striking interval widening, we notice the coils disappearing, until the last is out and the sally is high up with Mary's arms unstretched at the rope-end. Now a pause, with the bell held 'up' at 'back' before Mary pulls her off the balance with a downright pull called 'back-stroke.' As the sally 'dances' at the bottom of the stroke Mary catches it and checks its rise to pause with the bell 'up' at 'hand,' before she pulls her off again, this time at 'hand-stroke.' The bell is now being truly 'rung,' and is performing the full-circle motion we observed last week in the bell chamber itself.

'Watch carefully this action of "ringing,"' calls Tom to us, 'noting especially: (1) the reaching well up at both "hand" and "back."

(2) The touching of the two hands when they grasp the rope at both "hand" and "back."
(3) The dead-straight full-length down-pull action at both "hand" and "back." These are the secrets of absolute bell-control of even the heaviest bells.'

We observe all this as Mary's apparently effortless performance arouses our admiration. 'Stand!' calls Tom. And as the sally comes up to pause at 'hand,' Mary holds the bell steady for a moment, then eases up on tip-toe as she sets the bell, and ties up the rope-end loop as before.

'Now,' says Tom, 'any questions?' Well, of course, we have many things to ask. Most questions Tom answers right away, but to some he promises an answer later when we have learnt more about the whole thing. 'You've seen raising and ringing,' he goes on, 'now Mary will lower. Being the reverse of raising, as the bell drops lower, the spare end-rope is gathered up in loops again. But don't worry about that now, as you'll learn how to do it later.'

As Mary lowers the bell Tom tells us to take our seats again, as he's going to introduce us to the promised 'Pole and pig-tail,' a useful device for giving us safely and accurately the preliminary instruction and practice in the action of 'ringing' that Mary has just demonstrated so well.

But I see that we've used up our space, and I must stop, anyway, to catch the post, so, till next practice, Yours ever,

CORN. R. STONE.

GUILD OF DEVONSHIRE RINGERS

The annual meeting of the North-East Branch was held on January 7th at Tiverton. A very pleasant feature of the service was that it was conducted by two past chairmen of the branch, the Rev. F. Carter and the Rev. J. M. Turner, the latter giving the address. Visitors came from near and far, about 40 sitting down to tea.

At the subsequent business meeting the hope was expressed that the Guild president, Preb. E. V. Cox, who was prevented by illness from being present, would speedily be restored to health. Ten new members were elected, and the retiring officers—chairman, Mr. E. J. Taylor; secretary, Mr. C. J. Dymond; and Ringing Master, Mr. A. G. Selley—were re-elected. The meeting stood in silence in memory of Canon Coleridge and Mr. John Heard.

Tiverton's grand ring of bells was kept going to a variety of methods during the afternoon and evening, some of the striking—notably that of the service touch—being very good.

The spring meeting will be held at Huntsham on April 15th.

SALISBURY DIOCESAN GUILD DEVIZES BRANCH.

The annual meeting of the Devizes Branch was held at Devizes on Jan. 7th and was attended by some 80 members and friends.

The service was conducted by the Rev. E. S. Dabbs, of St. John's Parish Church. An excellent tea was served, being followed by the business meeting.

Six new ringing members and one life ringing member were elected. The secretary's report and accounts were presented and accepted. The retiring officers were re-elected for another year, and Mr. S. G. Grant, Bishop Cannings, was added to the list of ringing masters.

Bradford-on-Avon was chosen as the place for the next quarterly meeting, with Devizes for the annual meeting in January, 1951.

Ringings at all three churches in the town was of a good standard, methods up to Cambridge Surprise Major and Minor being rung.

Television Features

Twice recently ringers who have access to television sets have had excellent features presented. The visit of Richard Dimbleby to St. Paul's Cathedral was one of the finest new features presented. The ringers were introduced to Mr. Dimbleby on the steps of St. Paul's by Mr. Herbert Langdon. They were seen climbing the stairs and finally in the ringing chamber. Here Mr. Frank Smalwood explained points to the famous broadcaster. Then came rounds and Stedman Cinques, followed by shots of the bells revolving.

The second was the dedication of Burnham bells, which was shown last Friday. The handing over of the bells by Mr. P. L. Taylor to the churchwarden and their dedication by the Bishop of Oxford were well done. Mr. George Gilbert was clearly seen receiving from the Bishop the bells for his care and attention. The young ladies of Burnham performed in a manner which must have given Mr. Gilbert a sense of pride. At any rate, they were unperturbed by the glare of the lights and added grace and charm to the general scene. Shows were also taken of the bells in motion.

Bells as news features are undoubtedly popular, and the televising of performances should add materially to general interest.

WELSH BROADCAST

In connection with the broadcast in the Welsh Home Service on January 10th, a ringer narrates his experiences as follows:—

For the 15 minutes of radio time some 25 ringers were drawn from their usual routine. Some spent from 7 to 8.30 p.m. whilst a plain course of Grandsire Doubles and a few rounds were recorded. A dance band burst upon the microphone during a 'cut' and in the change a ringer wandered. Motor-cycles and screaming children caused some delay. Even the clock had to start chiming (without bells) during an interview. Ringers going in for a broadcast must not arrange any other pursuit or pastime for the evening!

At the second church flies were a nuisance and settled on ringers and speakers frequently.

Microphone nerves affected our champion caller. After a booming instruction to an errant ringer to move rapidly from 4th place to lead it was hard to realise that it was the same timid voice at the microphone.

It is hoped that many ringers will express their appreciation or otherwise of 'Plain Bob Minors' (as it was called). If there is a great demand for a more advanced talk we can get it.

ESSEX ASSOCIATION SOUTH-WESTERN DIVISION.

About 67 members and friends attended the annual meeting of the South-Western Division at Hornchurch on January 7th, when some good ringing was heard on this grand night.

The very impressive service was conducted by Canon Courthope, and Mr. Page was at the organ.

The liveliness and virility of the Division was reflected at the meeting which followed, when many provocative arguments were debated.

In his report, the secretary reported a satisfactory financial position, with ringing membership standing at 227, honorary membership at 28 and three new towers in union—Haverhill (6), North Ockendon (6) and South Benfleet (6). Appealing to towers where Sunday ringing was irregular, the secretary said that bells on Sunday were a part of the English way of life and he hoped that very soon all towers in the Division would be ringing regularly for divine service. Crusader meetings had been well attended and much good work had been done.

The following officers were re-elected: Master Mr. J. Chalk (Wanstead); secretary, Mr. F. V. Gant (Hornchurch); committee, Mr. J. Grove (Leytonstone), Mr. J. Sitch (Brentwood).

ST. MARTIN'S GUILD, BIRMINGHAM

MR. G. W. CRITCHLEY NEW RINGING MASTER.

An extremely well-attended meeting of the St. Martin's Guild for the Diocese of Birmingham was held on January 7th at the Tamworth Arms, Birmingham, the Master, Mr. Albert Walker, presiding.

The Chairman referred to the loss the Guild had suffered by the deaths of Ernest Mansell and Harry Withers, and asked all present to stand in silence as a mark of respect to their memory. Ernest Mansell had been a loyal member of the St. Martin's Sunday band for many years, whilst Harry Withers was famous throughout the ringing Exercise for his exceptional abilities.

HENRY JOHNSON DINNER.

It was decided to invite the Rev. S. Harvie Clark, Archdeacon of Birmingham, to preside at the Henry Johnson dinner on Saturday, March 4th. Criticism having been received regarding overcrowding at last year's dinner, it was agreed to restrict the number to the capacity of the Connaught Room, tickets to be issued in order of application. All other arrangements in connection with the dinner were left in the hands of the Guild's officers.

The balance sheet was presented by the treasurer, and, in view of the heavy expenditure during the year, the finances were considered to be satisfactory. The treasurer drew attention to the cost of writing up peals, and estimated that some 300 awaited recording in the books.

Mr. J. Pinfold, having given notice of motion at the previous meeting, proposed that the subscription be raised by 1s. per annum. This was seconded by Mr. W. C. Dowding, and carried unanimously.

ELECTION OF OFFICERS.

The president and vice-presidents were re-elected en bloc on the proposition of Mr. F. W. Perrins seconded by Mr. J. Pinfold. On the proposition of the hon. secretary, seconded by Mr. T. H. Reeves, Mr. Albert Walker was unanimously re-elected Master for the ensuing year. In acknowledging his re-election, Mr. Walker thanked the members for their continued confidence.

The Ringing Master, Mr. E. C. Shepherd, gave a résumé of the peals rung during the past year. They numbered 61, and included Lindsey, Prittlewell and Albanian Maximus. The practices, said Mr. Shepherd, had been well attended by numerous young ringers, who had been helped by more experienced Maximus ringers. He thanked the Master and the hon. secretary for the assistance they had given him towards making it a successful year. Unfortunately, owing to increasing professional duties, the calls upon his spare time had grown considerably, and he regretted that he could not possibly hold office for the ensuing year. The Master expressed his regret that Mr. Shepherd found it impossible to continue, and thanked him for his valued services during the past year.

The hon. secretary proposed and the chairman seconded that Mr. G. W. Critchley be elected Ringing Master. Mr. Critchley, said the hon. secretary, was an excellent conductor who would have the support of every member. No other nominations being received, Mr. Critchley was elected, and returned thanks to the members.

The trustees, Alderman Paddon Smith and Mr. E. T. Allaway, were re-elected. Mr. H. H. Fearn was re-elected auditor, and Mr. S. O'C. Holloway was elected in place of Mr. Critchley. The librarian, Mr. J. F. Harvey, and the hon. secretary and treasurer (Mr. G. E. Fearn) were also re-elected.

NEW MEMBERS.

Fourteen full ringing members were elected, including eight ringers attached to Hampton-in-Arden Church, and the following life members were duly ratified: Miss J. E. Askew (Osterley) and Messrs. J. E. Turley (Sheffield), J. A. L. Thompson (Nuneaton) and W. H. Pickett (Edinburgh).

Mr. A. Short gave a warm invitation to the Guild to hold the next meeting at Aston on April 1st, which met with approval.

Sympathy was extended to Mr. J. W. Pemberton and Mr. S. Grove, who were both suffering from long illnesses, and the hon. secretary was asked to write and express the best wishes of the members for their speedy recovery.

The Master said how pleased he was to welcome back to Birmingham Mr. William H. Barber, who, after leaving many years ago for Dublin, Edinburgh and Newcastle, had now found his way back to Birmingham and had joined the St. Martin's Sunday band.

The meeting closed with a vote of thanks to the chairman proposed by Mr. V. A. Hemming, and carried with acclamation.

MR. DANIEL T. MATKIN, of Bournemouth, who created a new handbell record with 109 peals in 1949.

BATH AND WELLS ASSOCIATION
ILCHESTER DEANERY BRANCH.

The annual meeting took place at Martock on January 7th, attended by members from Martock, Stoke-under-Ham, Limington, Drayton, Yeovil, West Coker, Hardington Mandeville, Shepton Beauchamp, North Cadbury, Templecombe, Castle Carey and Ditchat.

The service was conducted by the Vicar and branch chairman, Preb. G. W. Saunders. Mr. R. Higgs was the organist. An excellent tea was served in the Church House by Mesdames Moorey, Strickland, Richards and Miss Strickland, followed by the business meeting, presided over by the chairman.

The retiring officials were re-elected, namely, Preb. G. W. Saunders, chairman; T. Setter, vice-chairman; F. Farrant, secretary; W. H. Poole, Ringing Master. Six new members were elected, which included the Rev. D. Ballard, Vicar of Stoke-under-Ham.

East Coker, Stoke-under-Ham and South Petherton were chosen as meeting places. The next annual meeting will be held at Yeovil. Preb. Saunders warmly welcomed those present, and, reviewing the past year, made special reference to the augmentation and restoration carried out at Stoke-under-Ham. The meeting closed with thanks to the organist and the ladies who had served tea.

OBITUARY

MR. ALLEN BROWN.

The death occurred on December 28th of Mr. Allen Brown, of Gorseinon, at the early age of 16 after a few days' illness. He will be a great loss to Gorseinon, as he was always at service ringing.

The funeral took place on January 2nd. On the following Sunday a quarter peal of Grand-sire Doubles with the bells half-muffled was rung by the following with 1 and 2 as leading bells: R. Edwards 1, B. Thomas 2, A. Trew 3, A. Jones 4, R. Dobbins 5, W. Dobbins 6, J. T. Williams (cond.) 7, C. Pettit 8.

MR. RICHARD HAYES.

For over 40 years a ringer at Haslemere (Surrey) Church, Mr. Richard Hayes died suddenly on January 13th, aged 71. A Nottinghamshire min, Mr. Hayes came to Haslemere in 1901 and was for many years associated with the late Mr. J. H. B. Hesse.

An accomplished ringer, he served his own tower as captain and secretary at various times and was for a period ringing master of the Guildford district of the Guildford Diocesan Guild. A skilled craftsman in wood, many of the peal boards in West Surrey churches were his handiwork. He is survived by his wife, a son and two daughters, the younger of whom, Miss V. Hayes, is a missionary in India.

The funeral service was at Haslemere on January 17th, the Rector (the Rev. Gordon Shelford) officiating, assisted by the Rev. K. Jardine and the Rev. R. Newham. A course of Grand-sire Triples was rung over the open grave by C. Hazelden 1-2, A. H. Pulling 3-4, F. Bowden 5-6, Mrs. Hazelden 7-8. A number of other ringers attended the service, and in the evening 1,260 Grand-sire Triples was rung with the bells half-muffled by H. Mullahd 1, C. Hazelden 2, G. Grover 3, Mrs. Bowden 4, A. J. Bartlett 5, F. Radford 6, F. Bowden (cond.) 7, F. Maybee 8.

MR. W. SPARKES.

The death is announced of Mr. Whitted Sparkes, of Streatham, S.W., after three weeks' illness, at the age of 66. He was a native of Chippenham, Cambs, where he learnt to ring, and was a member for many years of the Surrey Association.

Mr. Sparkes was a member of the Mitcham Parish Church band until the bells were put out of action by fire in 1915. He then joined St. Leonard's, Streatham, band and was most regular in ringing for the Sunday services. He took part in a number of peals of Triples, mostly at Mitcham, and was a good striker.

The funeral took place at Streatham Cemetery on January 8th. Ringers present were Messrs. R. Charge, J. Chapman, S. Howard (Streatham), A. Miller, T. G. Miller (Christ Church, Mitcham).

ESSFX ASSOCIATION
NORTHERN DISTRICT.

Bocking was the venue of the annual meeting of the Northern District on January 7th. Only a small number of members attended, which was disappointing to the local ringers, as they had a bountiful tea prepared. The service was Solemn Evensong for the Epiphany, conducted by the Dean, who also gave an address. Tea was prepared in the Workman's Hall.

Miss H. G. Snowden presided over the business meeting, supported by the Dean, Sub-Dean and Mrs. Rush. At the outset, the company stood in silent memory of Mr. H. Collins, of Braintree, who died the previous Thursday night.

The following were elected to serve for the ensuing year: District Master, Miss H. G. Snowden; district secretary and treasurer, Mr. H. A. Pratt; committee, Messrs. G. Trendell and H. W. Smith.

Pebmarsh was chosen for the next meeting on March 18th. Afterwards handbells as well as the church bells were rung.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

A REALLY FINE PEAL

Dear Sir,—I am pleased to congratulate Mr. J. C. E. Simpson and his band through 'The Ringing World' on their success in ringing the peal of 6,486 Spliced Surprise Major, rung in six methods, at Frodsham on December 31st. I had the great pleasure of being in the vicinity most of the time, only leaving for a cup of tea. The striking was simply grand, a good beat being kept up. Having a copy of the lead ends with me, I was able to check them as they came up quite distinctly. It was a really fine peal.—Yours sincerely, Port Talbot. A. J. PITMAN.

THOSE OUTSIDE THE PALE

Dear Sir,—Having read 'The Ringing World' for at least 20 years, and having been a member of the Central Council and travelled many miles, more than most working men, I feel rather disappointed reading Mr. Lister's letter. Does he really believe what he wrote? Is it just so around Apperley? What is most required (it would appear) is for someone of Mr. Lister's ability to get around and educate. My ringing history and records tell me that it would be tragedy if the Central Council and 'The Ringing World' stopped. We are all cogs in a great ringing machine—associations, branches to the small village band. One God, one service.—Yours faithfully,

FRANK WARRINGTON.

St. Ives, Hunts.

PERSONAL ANIMOSITY

Dear Sir,—Your editorial of the first issue of 1950 warns readers to eschew spleen in their correspondence, yet in this same copy you print a glaring example of this regrettable trait.

As a non-ringer, I have no interest or side to take in the argument started by your correspondent Lister, and for all I know the reply from Theobald is a very good answer, but I am sure the Services rank of Mr. Lister has no bearing on his views or ability to conduct his case. Mr. Theobald's gibe is just another example of the bigotry now and then displayed by ringers.

The next obvious step is for some mud-slinger on the other side (possibly an amateur psychologist) to enquire what rank Mr. Theobald attained in the late war, or whether he secured a comfortable job in civil life of national importance, and so it goes on. For all I know, Mr. Theobald may have been a Marshal of the Air Force, but nothing excuses his cheap sneer.—Yours truly,

CHURCHWARDEN DARK.

Bristol 7.

ITCHINGFIELD SLOW COURSE

Dear Sir,—Is there somebody who can give me the origin of the method, 'Itchingfield Slow Course'? I found the method in a book which had been written completely by hand, and I do not know if it is a recognised method. The book was in Shipley Church, and the parish of Shipley joins Itchingfield. The method is for five bells, and there are five bells at Itchingfield. Has this any connection with the church at Itchingfield? The Itchingfield ringers have never heard of it, and I should be very glad if someone would give me some information of its history.

I should also be very glad if somebody could quote for me a rhyme about ringing in Bugbrook Church, Northants. It runs something like this:—

He who rings and breaks a stay
Shall have half-a-crown to pay.

There was also a line:—

He who rings in hat or spur.

These are the only lines I know. — Yours sincerely,
C. HONE.
Takeham.

CHANGE RINGING IN SPAIN

Dear Sir,—Mr. T. R. Butler, of Liverpool, writes in your issue of December 30th that neither Spain nor Portugal has ever possessed a ringing ring of bells.

There is a church in Madrid—I think, St. Francis—which possesses eight bells hung for ringing. A full account of the story can be found in 'The Bell News'—I am afraid I cannot quote the volume without search—and it is interesting to note that the English bell-hangers sent by the firm to Madrid remained after completing the work, in order to teach a band of Spaniards to ring. The extent of their efforts was certainly no more than Grand-sire, but the art did not catch hold, and it was reported that the band died out.—Yours faithfully,
K. S. B. CROFT.

Lincoln.

SPANISH JANGLING OF BELLS

Dear Sir,—The correspondence headed 'Christopher Columbus Greeting' prompts me to write as one of the few who read these letters with the background of Spanish bells. If only those who at home protest about practice and peal ringing could have a sufficient dose of Spanish jangling and clashing, incumbents would be saved many a difficult interview. 'The Ringing World' week by week both keeps us, who are at present exiled from active participation, in touch with the Exercise, and is a valuable medium for promoting interest abroad.—Yours faithfully,

ROBERT J. COBE.

Bella Vista, Minas de Rio-Tinto, Prov. de Huelva, Spain.

GROUPED NAMES—A PREVIOUS ATTEMPT

Dear Sir,—Seeing Margaret Woolley's recent letter reminded me of a job never done. When Mr. Ernest Morris was compiling his book some 20 years ago he sent me a short list of grouped names. The list covered about 40 pages of foolscap and I was fairly flummoxed. Ernest needed a few verses for a preface, but had to go without. This is what I think he was after:—

Said Pye to the Baker,
That Miller's a Quaker,
With his Beans, Barley, Wheat and Oats,
He'll go for a quarter
When he know's he didn't oughter.
He'll send them Whiteheaded
Before they are half Breaded,
Leaving the Tarts and the Cakes in the Poole.

'A FLAT.'

FOUR PEALS IN ONE DAY

Dear Sir,—To my mind, no further comment is necessary when one observes that 2 hours 25 minutes was the time taken for the peal of Surprise Royal.

Any ringer of experience can draw certain obvious conclusions regarding the quality of the peal. I am not suggesting for one moment that it was false in any way.—Yours faithfully,

HERBERT G. ANDREWS.

Kingston-on-Thames.

A MEMORY OF CANON COLERIDGE

Dear Sir,—I am not a ringer, but I had the privilege of playing at the service when Canon Coleridge dedicated the war memorial in his native village of Cadbury after the first world war. During the ringing, in which he took part, one of the team collapsed. Still ringing, Canon Coleridge caught him and placed him on a chair, and went on ringing. I, for one, much deplore the passing of such a personality.—Yours truly,
S. A. WELCH (Miss).

Holsworthy Celebrations

NEW OCTAVE AND CARILLON.

Since 1904 the old carillon ceased to function, though the Mears octave (tenor 12½ cwt.) were regularly rung. But Holsworthy people loved their carillon, and, led by their Rector (the Rev. E. Royle), a committee of townsmen, with Mr. A. E. Axtell as secretary, decided on a job worthy of the fine old granite tower and the town. The bells must be recast and a new electrical carillon installed. The work was done by Messrs. Gillett and Johnston, of Croydon, and Dr. Mortimer, Bishop of Exeter, dedicated the bells and carillon on Dec. 20th last.

On January 14th, the 500th anniversary of the building of the tower was celebrated, with thanksgiving for the recast and rehung bells and new carillon.

More than a hundred ringers from Devon and Cornwall rang the bells during the day, and the firm of Messrs. Gillett and Johnston was represented by Messrs. M. Howard and B. Newson.

In the morning Eucharist was sung and a special service of thanksgiving was held at 3.30 p.m. This was conducted by the Rector, the Rev. W. H. Ravenhill, R.D., read the lesson, and the Rev. J. A. Durling, Rector of Bideford preached. Mr. Fulford Oke, a prominent Free Churchman, gave an account of the tower and the choir sang the anthem, 'Holsworthy Church Bells,' composed by Dr. S. S. Wesley and set to words by Mr. F. J. Sluman, the Rector's churchwarden. The sum of £60 was realised from the public luncheon and tea, and the work, costing over £2,100, is now clear or nearly so.

There is no question of the excellence and 'go' of the new bells, which, in the opinion of good judges, will rank high amongst Devon's many first-class octaves. The Croydon firm must be congratulated on doing a fine job.

A broadcast of part of the service, the carillon and the bells will occur on February 5th, West Regional. Details of the bells:—

Treble.—F sharp. Thomas Mears, of London, founder, 1836. Recast 1949 by Gillett and Johnston, founders, London. 5 cwt. 5 lb.

2nd.—E sharp. As No. 1 bell. 5 cwt. 5 lb.

'CHURCH BELLS OF CORNWALL'

Dear Sir,—With reference to Mr. Stuart Worth's enquiry, 'The Church Bells of Cornwall' was published by Bemrose and Sons, of Derby, in 1878, being reprinted from a series of articles in 'The Reliquary.' The author was E. H. W. Dunkin. The book is extremely rare, and is now much out of date in view of the extensive work done in Cornish towers in recent years.—Yours truly,

FREDERICK SHARPE.

PROGRESS IN IRELAND

Good news from Ireland. Surprise is now being practised by local resident members for the first time as well as most of the Plain and Treble Bob methods. Last Saturday week there were three peals being rung in Ireland at the same time—an indication of the advance in change ringing.
