DECISIONS AND OPINIONS AT TRURO

NO one who made the long journey into Cornwall to attend the 67th annual meeting of the Central Council, and the first in the county, will regret it. The visit was a glorious experience; a beautiful county, many good rings of bells, and warm friendship to be found everywhere. Moreover, it was a county of ringers who would gladden the heart of any Sunday service chairman. According to the Lord Bishop, only 14 out of the 160 towers are silent on a Sunday—seven because the bells were unsafe and five through lack of ringers. The majority of these may be call-change ringers but they are fulfilling the office of ringers in the Church.

In the last few years there has been a change of attitude towards call-change ringers. On Tuesday the hand of fellowship was extended by the president to two representatives of the Devon Association (a call-change body) and there were favourable references to the call-change ringers' art. Instead of Cinques and Maximus on 12 bells in broadcasting why not try call-changes, was a suggestion made during a debate on broadcasting, particularly of the bells on Christmas Day. Most 12-bell ringing is too fast for good recording as the trebles are indistinguishable when mixed with heavier bells. That was more or less the official opinion in making a plea that 12-bell ringing should be slower. It started a big wail. The Council was reminded of the glories of St. Paul's ringing at the President Kennedy memorial service and the superb ringing broadcast from St. Martin's, Birmingham. We think 12-bell bands will heed the advice of Mr. Harold Pitstow and ring slower for such occasions when recordings and live broadcasts are made. English ringing would not be representative without 12-bell ringing—our pride in every corner except in the matter of broadcasting.

The recent visit to Washington was the principal 'buzz.' Eight who were present at Washington attended Truro and regaled hearers with their experiences. Included in the report of the Overseas Committee was a talk by George Pipe on the trip. There was also the presentation of gifts from Washington. High hopes are entertained that from the enthusiastic reception accorded to change-ringing, which was listened to by thousands, there will emerge something lasting and permanent. A special Washington number is to be produced by 'The Ringing World.'

'The Ringing World' occupied a prominent place on the agenda. A new convener of the committee was appointed. To the regret of his colleagues and the Council, Mr. J. F. Smallwood retired from office on account of advancing years and for health reasons. Since the Chester meeting of 1952 he has directed the affairs of the committee with a shrewdness and knowledge of printing which has added to the appeal of the journal. The last balance sheet he presented showed 'The Ringing World' investments at £6,500 and cash at bankers and in hand of £3,135. He wanted to see £10,000 behind 'The Ringing World' before he let go the reins of office, and it has practically been fulfilled. To him the Council proposes to confer its highest honour of life membership, and this will take place at Northampton in 1965.

Although there is this substantial reserve behind the paper, rising costs are a cause of apprehension. Despite economies, production costs increased by £589 last year while revenue only increased by £111. The profit of 1963 was realised by investment income of £276 and donations of £477. To bridge this gap, two methods were announced. Postal subscribers are to be asked to pay another 2s. per annum, and this will come into operation with renewals due on July 1st. At present the postal subscriber pays just 4d. for a year's copies! The other increase is in respect of small advertisements, by introducing a common charge of 4s. for 30 words. Providing revenue from donations—mainly quarter peals—is maintained, it should be possible to produce more 24-page issues.

We have been passing through a silly phase, particularly in one quarter, in regard to the naming of new methods. In no outspoken language was there a condemnation of these foolish efforts. 'Ob,' said Mr. Wilfrid Moreton, 'is "Bo" backwards, and this is like saying "Bo" to the Council and ringing generally.' There were three changes and a fourth is under consideration. Mr. Denis Bayles was mainly attacking these and others in his motion for systematic nomenclature. A great step forward was an acceptance that once a method was named, even in a spliced peal, that name should be permanent. But no alteration of past names or reducing naming to numbers can be tolerated, otherwise chaos will ensue. It would, however, be helpful in the naming of new methods if there can be an association with the parent. In H. and M.'s computer list it will be found that there is a host of methods with only one pair of places different from Cambridge. Why could they not be called after colleges?

The message of Truro was that the Exercise was in a healthy state. Peal ringing in 1963, at 2,961, was 137 more than in the previous year, and this year peals are even more prolific. A slight abridgement in the way they are set in type is planned. Most areas are able to impart an improvement in Sunday service ringing and the quality of ringing seems even higher. But 1963 will live in bell history by the ringing of the extent of Major; and the spontaneous applause that greeted Mr. R. B. Smith, the conductor of 'the Everest' of ringing, at Truro, revealed what all present felt of that wonderful achievement. From Truro also came wonderful fellowship, and among the memories are Cornish pasties and saffron cakes, a happy touch at the reception after the Council meeting.

BISHOP TELLS CENTRAL COUNCIL OF TRURO DIOCESE SUNDAY SERVICE RECORD

A RADIANT Cornwall welcomed the Central Council to Truro this Whitsun. The opening of the second session of the 25th Council (67th annual meeting) had all the tradition and dignity which accompanies visits to different parts of the country. The meeting took place in Truro Town Hall on Whit Tuesday and was attended by the Mayor and Mayoress (Councillor Eric A. Brown and Mrs. Brown), the Lord Bishop of Truro (Dr. J. M. Key) and the president and other officers of the Truro Guild.

The Mayor, in his welcome to members to the ancient city of Truro, said it was the first time the Central Council had visited Truro, and he hoped it would not be the last. The history of the Council was extremely interesting and its formation followed a dinner given on Easter Tuesday (April 8th), 1890, by Sir Arthur Heywood, and the first meeting was held the following Easter Tuesday and was attended by 76 delegates representing 33 Societies. Sir Arthur was president of the Council until his death in 1916. The nearest meeting the Council had held to Truro was at Plymouth in 1932, when several members visited Truro and a peal was conducted on the Cathedral bells by Mr. J. S. Goldsmith, the Editor of 'The Ringing World.'

The Truro Diocesan Guild was founded in 1897, but was not represented on the Council until 1908, when Mr. W. H. Southeard was elected the first representative. The Central Council had had six presidents and six secretaries.

Giving an indication of ringing, the Mayor said there were 5,345 rings of bells in the British Isles and only 60 in the rest of the world. Recently a team of English bellringers had visited America to ring for the dedication of the tower and bells of Washington Cathedral.

The Lord Bishop, who in his own words 'seconded the Mayor's welcome' said it was four years since he came to the diocese and he was getting more and more fond of his adopted county. He welcomed them on behalf of the diocese, and also on account of the position he held in the Guild, but he had to admit he was very much a learner in the art and skill of a bell ringer.

SUNDAY RINGING IN TRURO DIOCESE

One of the duties of a Bishop was to visit his diocese and that could be done in a technical way in making comprehensive inquiries of what was going on in the parishes. He made an inquiry about bellringers in the diocese two years ago. They had about 200 parishes in the diocese and 160 had rings of bells. Of those bells only 14 were not rung on a Sunday, seven because the bells were not fit to ring and five because there were no ringers.

He then inquired if the ringers attended church after ringing and was told that only in one church did they not attend. Another incumbent replied that they attended, except the Methodists who rang and then went to chapel. This showed that the ringers did their part not only in ringing but in worship and this, he believed, was true throughout the country. The Bishop said he also discovered that there were at least 250 learning to ring, which, he thought, was very encouraging.

Concluding, his lordship said he had only mastered one bell—the tenor—in the village where he was brought up. He, however, knew something of the art and delight of the bells; they were then somewhat suspicious of anything 'scientific.'

Another welcome came from Mr. Alan Carveth, Master and president of the Truro Guild, who said the Guild were delighted to make arrangements for their visit and he hoped they would take away with them pleasant memories of their city and county.

The president (Canon Gilbert Thurlow), in returning thanks for the welcome, congratulated the Mayor on the way he had done his 'prep' and, to the Bishop, said his diocese had given an example to the Exercise in having only 14 towers that were not rung each Sunday and 250 learners. Their children would look forward to ringing for the Coronation of a King of England for, whatever their Welsh representatives might say, before he was Prince of Wales he was Duke of Cornwall.

The President commented that the absence of some of their senior members in Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Fletcher and Mr. A. A. Hughes seemed to mark a turning point in the history of the Council. He was sure they very much regretted their absence.

PRESENTATIONS

The following new members were presented to the President: Messrs. T. Darch and H. Pidler (Devon Association), J. F. M. Maybrey (Guildford Guild), P. Morgan (Hereford Guild), J. P. Partington (Lancashire Association), W. L. Weller (Sussex Association), A. J. Davidson and G. Locke (Truro Guild).

MR. A. A. HUGHES HONOURED

Mr. F. W. Perrins proposed on behalf of the Standing Committee that Mr. A. A. Hughes be elected a life member of the Council. He said that few words of his were needed for the condition of such membership stated: 'life members shall consist in the opinion of the Council of those by reason of their services in the art of ringing merited the conferring of life membership.' When this came into being, it was decided that life membership should only be conferred on those who had rendered special services. Mr. Hughes had been a member of the Council since 1915 and together with Mrs. Fletcher had, he believed, been a member of the Council for nine years longer than any other member. He had given 49 years of faithful service; he had been a very active member and had acted as the auditor for many years. When 'The Ringing World' was taken over by the Council after the death of its originator, Mr. Goldsmith, many difficulties had to be overcome and one of the biggest was in the matter of finance. Here Mr. Hughes came to the rescue in guaranteeing in the case of loss. In those days 'The Ringing World' was not in the position it was today; it was due to his kindness and generosity that 'The Ringing World' was able to continue without any break.

Seconding Mr. J. Frank Smallwood said he heard from Mr. Hughes a few weeks ago stating that he was feeling excellent in himself but his mobility was impaired in his legs; nevertheless he was gradually improving and they hoped he would live long to enjoy the privilege of life membership.

The resolution was carried unanimously.

HONORARY MEMBERS

The Hon. Secretary reported that there were now six vacancies for honorary members. The Standing Committee recommended that the retiring members (Mrs. R. F. B. Speed and G. W. Pipe) be re-elected and that Mr. F. A. White, of Appleton, be elected. They also recommended that Mr. John Betjeman be approached for honorary membership next year and the remaining vacancies be left.

LOSSES BY DEATH

The Council stood while the following members were remembered: Mr. E. H. Lewis, Mr. A. C. Hazelden, Canon R. F. Wilkinson, Messrs. W. Rose, H. Stalham, T. H. Taffender and Derek Ogden.

The President paid a tribute to Mr. E. H. Lewis, recalling how he was held in great affection of all members. At Brasted he restored the bells and taught many people to ring. He recalled his open days once a year and his work for the Kent County Association. For a time he lived at Frodsham, Cheshire, where he did much for the Chester Diocesan Guild in encouraging method ringing. He also lived at Tring and in Scotland.

Mr. Lewis, he said, was Master of the College Youths in its tercentenary year (1937). He represented Cambridge University Guild on the Council from 1906-1936, was an hon.

MR. R. S. ANDERSON
the new Convener of 'The Ringing World' Committee.

member 1936-1951 and from 1951-1963 a life member. When President he was a wonderful example of what a chairman should be. He was a distinguished member of the Towers and Belfries Committee, a donor of many valuable books to the Council's library and would always be remembered for his work on the mechanics of bells.

'I remember him,' concluded the President, 'as a most kind and patient leader and nothing seemed to ruffle him. I was so grateful that he was present at Yarmouth.'

Mr. D. A. R. May in a tribute to Mr. A. C. Hazelden said everyone knew how meticulous he was in his work for the Central Council. He would like to mention his work at St. Nicolas', Guildford. Mr. Hazelden had trained many ringers who had gone to many parts of the world and they were all most grateful to him. They remembered the way he had established the library of the Guildford Guild.

The tribute to Mr. Wm. Rose, of the Peterborough Guild, was paid by Mr. Norman Chaddock. He was a good striker and would not tolerate anything slapdash, he said.

Mr. A. V. Sheppard spoke of the lovable qualities of Harry Stalham and Mr. Edgar Shepherd recalled his recollections of Canon Wilkinson when he was at Mansfield, 40 years ago. He was a very capable ringer who did a lot for the advancement of ringing in Nottingham.

A member of the Central Council for 62 years, the late Mr. T. H. Taffender, received a tribute from Mr. Harold Rogers. Mr. Taffender, he said, was a senior past master of the Ancient Society of College Youths which he joined in 1893, and a member of St. Paul's Cathedral band for over 60 years. He joined the London County Association in 1895 and served for 65 years as an officer and as Master for 50 years. He would be best known for the encouragement and help he gave to young ringers all over the county.

Mr. C. Crossthwaite recalled the sudden and untimely death at the age of 30 of Mr. Derek Ogden, who was only elected a member of the Council last year. He was not well known to Council members but in Lancashire he was extremely well known and admired by everybody. He had a quiet, efficient manner and even people who did not know him personally appreciated his achievements. He was President of the Manchester University Guild and secretary of the Manchester District of the Lancashire Association.

MINUTES OF THE LAST MEETING

The minutes of the last meeting, which were published in 'the Ringing World' of March 20th and had been circulated to members, were adopted on the proposition of the secretary, seconded by Mr. F. I. Hairs.

THE HON. SECRETARY'S REPORT

Probably the most outstanding event during 1963 was the service of thanksgiving for the life and work of Mr. Edwin H. Lewis at St. Michael's, Cornhill, on November 2nd. The church was almost full and those able to attend were privileged to take part in a most impressive service, conducted by Canon Felstead, and heard an outstanding address by our president. Mr. Frederick Sharpe read the lesson and representative bands rang before, and on handbells during, the service. It should perhaps now be placed on record that at the time of Mr. Lewis's retirement from the presidency in 1957 I approached the then Archbishop of Canterbury, at the suggestion of Mr. R. G. Blackman, of the Sussex Association, to ask if he would consider recommending Mr. Lewis for inclusion in an Honours List. Although His Grace could not see his way to do this a most courteous reply was received from him.

Reference is made elsewhere in the reports to the death of Mr. A. C. Hazelden. A telegram of congratulation was sent on behalf of the Council to Mr. and Mrs. Hazelden on the occasion of their diamond wedding anniversary in September.

The Council's good wishes were also sent to Que Que, Southern Rhodesia, where a ring of four hung for ringing was dedicated on October 18th.

A copy of 'The Ringing World,' in which were reported a number of peals and quarter peals in memory of President Kennedy, was sent to the American Ambassador and an acknowledgment said that it had been forwarded to Washington.

Numerous inquiries were received from the public. Among them, 'Woman' magazine wished to include a reference to ringing in a leaflet on hobbies; the Dean of Lincoln asked for information on bell-recording on behalf of an American inquirer, who later sent a letter of thanks, adding that he played it for his wife every Sunday!; several students who had chosen bells for special study sought information; two free-lance journalists asked various questions; and a suggested handbell-ringing syllabus for the Duke of Edinburgh's Award was provided at the request of Benenden School.

Once again I record my thanks to Mr. W. G. Wilson and Miss Groves for typing and duplicating these papers and to Association secretaries who send me copies of their reports. I am sorry that lack of time prevents me from acknowledging these individually.

E. A. BARNETT, Hon Secretary.

This was moved by the secretary and seconded by Mr. W. E. Critchley and carried.

TRUSTEES OF THE JOHN CARTER RINGING MACHINE

The machine was run on five days during the year and seen by 34 visitors. Touches of Stedman Triples, Stedman Cinques, Plain Bob Major, London Surprise Major and Bristol Surprise Major were rung. The new trustee, Mr. F. E. Haynes, was introduced to the machine in March and on September 7th he umpired the first peal on the machine, which was conducted by Mr. John Chilcott and consisted of 5,019 of Stedman Cinques, composed by John Carter (C.C.C. No. 15).

The machine continues to run well but it is hoped to replace the two recording pens shortly.

Standard Notation

Dear Sir,—It is unfortunate that Mr. C. A. Lewis disapproves of the position of the dividing lines in the Doubles methods in the Diary. In treble-dominated odd-bell methods, the division is governed by the presence or absence of a bell in the hunt. Thus in the Doubles methods on the front endpaper, the lead is symmetrical about a line drawn between the hand and backstrokes of the treble's lead. If there is a bell in the hunt, as in Grandsire, the lead is symmetrical about a line drawn between the whole pull leads of the treble and the bell in the hunt; in such methods, the backstroke of the treble's lead is correctly called the lead end, whereas in most methods it is the lead head.

The anomalous location of the lines in diagrams that were made for early editions of the Diary and are still in use was due to thoughtless copying of the obsolete style of Snowdon's Standard Methods. Now that the Diary contains about as many diagrams as can be included without increasing the number of pages and hence the price, the old blocks are gradually being replaced by what I regard as improved versions.

Mr. McClenahan's remarks about place notation are relevant in this connection. I had always understood that only internal places were noted in expressing a Surprise method, and followed this convention in Surprise Major and Royal diagrams in the Diary. I am now convinced that the slightly greater brevity is not a sufficient justification for omitting external places in the case of Surprise methods, when by including them the notation becomes applicable to non-Surprise methods and even to non-treble-dominated methods. I think, however, that the typography proposed by Mr. McClenahan could be improved: it results in an unbroken sequence of places which, in the example he gives, has been grouped by the compositor in a confusing manner. I suggest that places within a section should be punctuated by full-stops, but that a dash (preferably an en rule) should separate the cross-section places from the others. The bob places could be given in parentheses after the plain lead places, followed by the lead head number: the Hudson and McClenahan false course head information could be appended if desired. Guildford S. Major would then be written: x.58.x-14-58.x.58-36-x.14.x-38-14.36.x-58, 18 (14). LH6.

Regarding the lead heads of the plain course, there seems to be no good reason for calling the second one the first. But since there is no doubt which is being referred to when identifying a method, it can simply be referred to as 'the lead head.' Readers who do not possess either of the publications using lead head numbers can obtain them by writing out the lead heads of Plain Bob Major and numbering them 0-6: rounds is 0, 13527486 is 1, and so on.

Error in Association Report

Dear Sir,—I should be grateful for space in which to correct a mistake in the annual report of the Yorkshire Association of Change Ringers for 1963, which has recently been published.

On page 31, in the paragraph of the Committee's Report devoted to the 1963 Snowdon Dinner held in Leeds on October 12th, Mr. Gordon Benfield and Mr. R. J. Lumley are thanked for the work they did in preparation for the dinner. In actual fact it was Mr. Fred Munday, of Bradford Cathedral, and not Mr. Lumley who shared with Mr. Benfield (and Mr. W. Barton, too, incidentally) all the preliminary arrangements for the event. Mr. Munday's was indeed the lion's share.

I alone am responsible for the error and would like to apologise to Mr. Munday for attributing his much appreciated labours to someone else, to the members generally for misreading them, and to Mr. Lumley for taking his name in vain. A correction will be made

Place Notation and 'Lead Ends'

Dear Sir,—I would like to refer to two letters on page 324 of the issue of 'The Ringing World' of May 15th, 1964, on these matters.

A 'one-line' simple, inclusive version of place-notation for the half-lead was devised long ago, but its use depends upon correct recognition of what is meant by the terms 'lead-head' and 'lead-end,' and of the proper distinction between them, a distinction still discounted, apparently, by one or two who should know better!

Unfortunately, Mr. McClenahan's definition of these terms is not generic, and to that extent may be misleading; that is to say, if a definition of 'lead-head' and 'lead-end' is to apply to all hunt-controlled methods. His distinction is limited to single-hunt controlled methods—a part only of what was made clear half a century ago by that eminent ringer and writer, the late Rev. C. D. P. Davies, in his pamphlet entitled 'Lead Ends.'

Briefly, a comprehensive distinction would run something like this: The terms 'lead-head' and 'lead-end' refer to particular change-rows: whereas in place notation the symbols refer to what happens between the change-rows, and, in the case of the rows under consideration, between the end-row of any one 'lead' and the head-row of the ensuing 'lead.' It is, in fact, the nature or form of the permutation between those two rows; and for convenience in theoretic discussion we have long since called this permutation the 'Link.' (Obviously, as well as a normal link there can be 'Bob' links and 'Single' links.)

But now comes the vital point. In hunt-controlled methods the link can occur in one of two positions, in the change-rows, according as to whether the method is single hunt-controlled or twin hunt-controlled. Simple examples are found in Plain Bob, for the former, and Grandsire, for the latter. Put another way, we may say that the 'rule-off' or dividing line between the 'leads' (or 'divisions') of these two classes of method, differs in its position between the rows by just one row-interval. As to exactly where this dividing line or link comes, we cannot do better than refer to dicta of the Central Council on this matter.

In their 'Rules and Decisions,' 1904 edition, page 22, paras: (a) and (b) we read: 'In methods with one hunt (treble) (the division) is between the first and second blows of the whole pull of the hunt, before or behind.' And again, 'In methods with two hunts (treble and bell in the hunt) (the division is) midway between the whole pull of the first hunt and the whole pull of the second hunt, before or behind.' (The phrase 'before or behind' is added to cover 'Reverse' methods.) Further authority is to be found in the Council's 'Handbook,' 1956 edition page 24, where the dictum of 'Rules and Decisions' is repeated.

This may be summed up in simple language as follows: Rounds row, normally at the back-stroke blow of the treble's leading, comes at the head of a 'lead' in single-hunt controlled methods; but at the end of a lead in twin-hunt controlled methods. Therefore the 'rule off' line must come above rounds-row in all single-hunt methods, but below rounds-row in all but twin-hunt methods.

These C.C. definitions and their consequences do not appear to be universally known or recognised, as Mr. Colin A. Lewis' letter (advising what would be confusion as to the position of the 'rule-off' line) appears to indicate. A little care devoted to their consideration will lead to a clear conclusion.

That the principles of method structure, as accepted to-day, are dependent upon them, is yet another point.—Yours very truly,

A. YORK-BRAMBLE.

in the next annual report, but that is a long time to wait. Hence, sir, with your kind indulgence, this letter.—Yours sincerely,

OBITUARY

MR. J. S. HAWKINS

A member of the Ancient Society of College Youths, the London County Association and Oxford Diocesan Guild for over 60 years, Mr. Joseph Stephen Hawkins, passed away peacefully in his chair on December 31st, at St. Clement Danes' Estate, of which he had been superintendent for nine years.

Joe started his ringing at Marlow, Bucks. and was afterwards associated with Boyne Hill, Maidenhead, Berks, St. Clement Danes', Strand, and St. Andrew's, Holborn.

He was a Past Master of the College Youths, and they were represented at his funeral by a Past Master, the London County Association by its Master and other members, the Oxford Diocesan Guild by its treasurer, the Society of Royal Cumberland Youths by its Master, the Ladies' Guild by its treasurer and also a representative from Boyne Hill tower. A. D. B.

AN APPRECIATION

'Joe' departed from us quietly on December 31st last, just as he wished, active to the last, amongst the small community with whom he had lived for some years. He had been reluctant to join in any ringing for some years because he could not trust his hands to grip a rope, but he maintained a keen interest all the time. He valued his many friends, especially in Gloucester and district and was always pleased to see anyone who called to see him; he appreciated, therefore, Mr. W. R. Winterton's visit on Christmas Eve. Many of us remember the 'welcome to St. Clements' Passage near the 'Olde Curiosity Shop' by Joe and Mrs. Hawkins during the '20's and '30's. Last year we mentioned at the Veterans' Reunion how Joe had formed the St. Andrew's, Holborn, band in 1923 and had maintained the best Sunday service band in London on that wonderful ring until 1945. He was a Jovial College Youth and was Master during 1928 and again in 1932. At the dinners for those years we read of a record attendance of 262 for 1928 and 200 for 1932; also that 32 new members were elected during 1928 and 39 during 1939 'from all parts of the country.' We know how popular Joe was and on his slender means he achieved much.

Joe had rung many peals and his name is on belfry boards in many towers. His last was the 'perfect' peal of Stedman Triples at Finchley, conducted by Albert W. Coles, and most appropriately we can thank the Cumberlands for ringing a silent peal of Stedman Triples to his memory at Milton-next-Gravesend.

His name is written in the records for good work done and will never be forgotten. J. E.

MR. CECIL E. CARR

The death took place at his home at Broughton Astley, Leics, of Mr. Cecil E. Carr on March 22nd. He had been suffering from a heart complaint for the past 18 months and had consequently done very little ringing in that time. Cecil had been a ringer at Broughton Astley for many years. He had taken part in 100 peals (50 for the L.D.G. and 51 for the old M.C.A.). The peal he was most proud of was the first ever for Hinckley District band (Cambridge Surprise Major, rung at Earl Shilton on April 2nd, 1949). Cecil ringing the third. He joined the old M.C.A. in 1924 and was a member till the formation of the L.D.G. in 1946, of which he was a member till his death.

The funeral took place at St. Mary's. The L.D.G. were represented by their president (Mr. F. K. Measures) and other ringing friends. As the final part of the funeral service was taking place in the cemetery a quarter peal of 1,260 Grandsire Doubles was commenced, being brought round successfully 45 minutes later. The ringers were: Mrs. M. E. Brown 1, A. Ballard (cond.) 2, M. E. Brown 3, N. Price 4, W. Johnson 5, W. R. Drury 6.

THE UNIVERSITY OF LONDON SOCIETY

The 20th annual general meeting of the University of London Society was held on May 9th.

Ringling commenced on the somewhat doubtful eight at Dalston and continued at Cubitt Town in the Isle of Dogs. After lunch, Rotherhithe, St. George's, Borough Road, and the Society's home tower, St. Olave's, Hart Street, were visited. The service at St. Olave's was conducted by the Rev. M. Dean, and was followed by an excellent tea in the Parish Hall. The chair at the meeting was taken by the president, Mr. Philip Gray.

In his report, the retiring Master, Mr. Alan Frost, reminded the meeting of the role of a University Society. This was to renew the ties with past members, to encourage new members and to form an integrated society. Sunday evening service ringing had continued to be well attended, perhaps spurred on by the thought of coffee and handbells after the service. Quite a number of quarter peals had been rung at St. Vedast's and at St. Clement Danes'. Other ringing activities had been two highly successful tours in the Slough and North Kent areas. Another well-attended function had been the annual dinner.

The Master noted that the 150th peal had been rung during the year, including several long lengths and a ladies' peal of Yorkshire Surprise Major. In addition, two members, J. C. Eisel and B. J. Woodruffe, took part in the extent of Plain Bob Major at Loughborough. In conclusion, he thanked the Rev. M. Dean and Canon Mortlock for the continued use of the bells of St. Olave's and St. Vedast's.

The secretary, Mrs. Diana Frost, said that the social activities had increased, the tours being supported by more new undergraduates than ever before. Membership now stood at 184, which included 16 new members elected last year. She thanked the Society for a wedding present.

Before the election of the officers for the next year, the president informed the Society that he wished to stand down from the office as he felt that after five years a change was desirable. In a short account of his term of office, he said that no less than 15 members of the Society were on the Central Council, and he felt that this showed that past members were continuing to lead the Exercise.

The following officers were elected: President, Mr. D. Martin; vice-presidents, Messrs. D. Layton, A. Thirst and P. M. J. Gray; Ringing Master, Mr. R. O. Humphries (Imperial); hon. secretary, Miss Y. Edwards (Bedford); hon. treasurer, Mr. R. W. Powell (Imperial); auditor, Mr. P. Layton; committee, Mr. A. J. Frost, Mr. A. G. Tyers and Miss B. G. Dale.

The wife of the Rector of St. Olave's, Mrs. Dean, was elected an honorary life member for her services to the Society.

Future meetings: General meeting, October 17th, 1964; Annual Dinner, February 13th, 1965; Annual general meeting, May 8th, 1965.

There are still vacancies on the summer tour in Hereford and South Wales—Saturday, July 4th, to Sunday, July 12th. Anyone interested should contact the secretary. R. W. P.

THE EAST RIDING RINGERS

This year the East Riding Ringers chose the Yorkshire dales for their Whit Monday outing—so ensuring both magnificent bells and countryside. En route the splendid eight at Tadcaster were sampled with a variety of methods—although the Surprise Ringers met with their first misfortune when Superlative broke down a lead from home. Then on to Birstwith, in Nidderdale, for a picnic lunch and an hour on the very tuneful Warner eight. Here the bells seemed to prefer the odd-bell methods. At Addingham (6), in Wharfedale, key difficulty was experienced but the belfry door was eventually released to reveal Yorkshire tail ends, so giving some of the younger ringers their first chance to try them. All the more interesting after the recent controversy in 'The Ringing World'.

The Yorkshire tail-ends were especially appreciated on the glorious eight at Skipton, although time here was reduced due to traffic hold-ups. After retracing our path through the rain, Ilkley was reached for a restaurant tea. The bells of Jasper Snowdon's home tower were then rung to many methods; and here some Surprise did actually come round!!

MIDDLESEX COUNTY ASSOCIATION

On May 2nd the North and East District of the Middlesex Association held a joint meeting with the Watford District of the Hertford County Association at St. Mary's, Finchley. This was the first time a meeting had been held at this tower for several years.

Although the meeting was very well supported, unfortunately the representation from the Watford District was very small. In the absence of the Vicar the service was conducted by the Curate, the Rev. A. Bacon, who gave a very enlightening address. Tea was served in one of the spacious new halls.

The District chairman passed a vote of thanks to the Vicar, Curate and lady organist, also the ladies who prepared tea and especially to the Parochial Church Council who so generously provided a very good tea, and last, but by no means least, to Mr. L. Tubb, captain of the local ringers, without whose help and assistance the meeting would not have been the success it proved to be.

LEICESTER DIOCESAN GUILD Hinckley District Striking Competition

The Hinckley District striking contest was held at Higham-on-the-Hill on April 25th. Six Sunday service bands from the District entered. The test piece was a minimum of five minutes and a maximum of ten minutes, starting with approximately two minutes' trial. The first team to ring was Higham, who rang Grandsire Doubles with 52½ faults; followed by Earl Shilton, Grandsire Doubles, 19½ faults; Mancetter, Doubles on the back five, 53½ faults; Stoney-Stanton, Plain Bob Minor, 63½ faults; Thurlaston, Grandsire Doubles, 143½ faults; Sapcote, Spliced Surprise six methods, 31½ faults. Earl Shilton, being the winners, were presented with the District Shield by Mr. J. Garner-Hayward (Warwick), who judged the contest with Mr. H. Summers (Allesley) and Mr. H. M. Windsor (Wolvey). M. GUILD OF DEVONSHIRE RINGERS East Devon Branch

The annual meeting was held at Ottery St. Mary on May 9th, approximately 40 ringers attending the service, tea and meeting. The service was conducted by the Rev. Mr. Price and at the meeting the chair was taken by Mr. Sage. The following officers were elected: Mr. Sage, chairman; Mr. Webb, secretary and treasurer. The Ringing Master is Mr. C. Turner; general committee, Messrs. Davies, Clarke and Hodge. It is regretted that Buckereil have withdrawn from the Guild. Monthly practices will resume in the autumn. More ringing followed the meeting. Among methods rung were Stedman Triples, Oxford Bob Triples, Bob Major, Cambridge, etc. W. W.

BIRMINGHAM UNIVERSITY

The annual general meeting of the Society was held in the Union Building on May 12th. The retiring chairman, Mr. C. J. Brown, said in his report that since a large proportion of the members were now completing their first year, and because of the unqualified success of the Easter tour, the Society was now in a position from which it would flourish. The secretary, treasurer and Ringing Master confirmed this view in their respective reports. During the proceedings the following officers were elected: Chairman, Miss R. A. Tailby; secretary, Mr. A. J. Jobson; treasurer, Mr. M. H. Hodgkinson; Ringing Master, Mr. A. D. Macfadyen. After the meeting several members attended King's Norton ringing practice. A. J. J.

'CORNISH BELLS'

Sir,—'Cornish Bells' (see page 323) was written somewhere about 1899 by the then Bishop of Truro. I've mislaid my copy so I cannot give the exact date. He sent it round, I think, to all parishes at Christmas time. Your copy is not quoted quite correctly but it is only a matter of a few spelling mistakes. But ringers coming to Cornwall should not put too much faith in it, for the Bishop allowed the necessity for a rhyme to take precedence over the actual presence of bells. And there are none or only one in some of the places mentioned. C. F. JERRAM (Lt.-Col.).

Helston, Cornwall.

BELFY GOSSIP

Probably the best ringing at Truro was the peal of Cambridge Royal rung on the Cathedral bells. A second start was necessary because one of the ropes gave the impression it would not last out. Some splicing made things safe. Commented one listener: 'The best ringing I have heard in Truro for years.'

We learn that Miss Marie R. Cross is holidaying in America.

Mr. Frank T. Blagrove has accepted a teaching appointment in Salisbury, Southern Rhodesia. He will be leaving this country in August.

Congratulations to Mr. Sydney M. Bailey, of High Wycombe, who is ringing master of the East Berks and South Bucks Branch of the Oxford Diocesan Guild, on ringing his 100th peal—at Slough, on May 1st.

On Whit-Monday, May 18th, 1880, the Kent County Association was formed at Canterbury. Mr. Ted Ruck, who will be 97 this June, is the only surviving member.

Included in a film on Cambridge University life to be shown on French television, probably on May 28th, is a sequence of ringing at the University Church. Holiday-makers, take note!

Mr. Michael Fairey, the conductor of the peal of 13 Surprise Minor Methods at Little Aston, Staffs, on May 9th, completed 20 years in the local choir on May 5th. The Little Aston choir and ringers tender to him their warmest congratulations on the anniversary.

A ringer giving a talk on bells in the remote village of Himbleton, Worcs, was confronted with an unusual question. He was asked whether he knew Dormston tower and if the local rumour that one of the bells was made of leather was true.

Feckenham, Worcs, band have just recorded their first quarter—a wedding anniversary compliment to the conductor and Mrs. E. Styler, who both took part. They remembered on this anniversary Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Jopp, of Stoulton Campanile, Worcs, who were married on the same day and have been closely connected with the tower since the recommencement of ringing in 1960.

Before the officers' peal for the Sussex County Association started at Southover, Sussex.

on May 9th to mark the 700th anniversary of the Battle of Lewes, the Mayoress, who has recently taken up ringing, joined in some rounds. The peal was rung at the special request of the Mayor and Corporation and the rounds inaugurated the festivities of Lewes' Gala Week.

Back in our peal columns after an absence of ten years is the well-known Leicestershire ringer, Mr. Edward R. Whitehead. The last time he rang a peal of Superlative was 20 years ago.

Two new conveners were announced at the Central Council meeting. Mr. Tom Lock takes the place of the late Mr. A. C. Hazelden, and Mr. Robert Anderson succeeds Mr. F. Smallpiece.

On his way to Truro, Mr. Frank Smallwood and Mr. R. B. Anderson were able to call on Mr. Joe Dyke at Chilcompton. Joe was one of the members of 'the Ringing World' committee that was formed at Chester in 1952. Some of his shrewd observances were later passed on to 'the editor.'

The editor fulfilled at Truro a request from Miss J. Armstrong, of Morpeth, to tell Mr. Harry Miles that she was unable to ring the curfew in the Watch Tower because a peal attempt was in progress. When the Central Council met at Newcastle, Mr. Miles was invited to ring the curfew by Miss Armstrong and did so most nobly.

Peter Caine writes: 'The poem "Cornish Bells" (p. 323) is somewhat reminiscent of "The Tower of Bottraux." The latter is from the pen of Robert Stephen Hawker, the 19th century Vicar of Morwenstow in North Cornwall. Perhaps he was responsible for the former poem too.'

Sixteen-year-old Bob Cooles distinguished himself at Kingston-upon-Thames on Whit Monday. Learning Cambridge Surprise Royal at thirty minutes' notice, he rang a quarter peal at his first attempt at the method, and his first quarter of Royal ever. The occasion was a farewell to Margaret Lewis, Kingston's secretary, who has left for Farnborough, Hants.

HERTS COUNTY ASSOCIATION

At the invitation of the local band, the St. Albans District held their April meeting at Hatfield, where ringing ranged from rounds to Surprise Royal. The Rector (the Rev. J. W. Stow) conducted Evensong. In his sermon he spoke of bells as the 'voice of the community,' rejoicing or mourning events about which the parish felt strongly.

A good tea was provided by the locals and the Rector took the chair at the meeting. The meeting particularly appreciated Mrs. Coburn's imaginative report of the Coventry outing. The best wishes of those present were sent to Christine Rimmer for a speedy recovery when it was heard that she had been involved in a car crash. Katherine Maylott was elected a new member. After the vote of thanks Geoff Dodds gave his second talk on conducting.

The ringers were present from Chisledon, Aldbourne, Marlborough (St. Peter's), Everleigh, Marlborough (St. Mary's), Collingbourne Ducis and Axford, and included a number of youthful members.

Visitors were also welcomed from Swindon and Bristol. Under the direction of the Ringing Master (the Rev. Roger Keeley), ringing commenced at 2.45 p.m. and continued in rounds and changes until 4.15 p.m., when tea was taken in the Church Room.

The chairman (Mr. G. Newman) presided at the short business meeting which followed and he made a strong plea to all to support the Ringing Master by helping learners when they were noticed to be in difficulties.

Tentative suggestions were made as to the venue for the annual Branch outing in September. South Dorset being mentioned as a possibility. It was agreed to hold the June meeting at Great Bedwyn and St. Katherine's (Savernake Forest) subject to permission being granted.

On the motion of the chairman a hearty vote of thanks was passed to Mrs. Smythe and her helpers for the splendid tea enjoyed, and to the Vicar (the Rev. Dr. Philp) for the use of the bells. A warm welcome was extended to the visitors.

The Guild service was held at 6 p.m., the Vicar officiating, with Mr. W. Lowe at the organ, and ringing was afterwards resumed until 7.30 p.m. Methods rung varied from Grandsire and Stedman to Kent and Cambridge. W. A. E.

SHEFFIELD AND DISTRICT

The May meeting of the Sheffield and District Society was held at Dore on May 2nd. Ringing began at 3 p.m. and touches in a variety of methods from Plain Bob Minor to Double Norwich Major were rung.

The business meeting was held before tea, and business was conducted by the assistant secretary, Mr. D. Armstrong. An excellent tea was served in the Church Hall.

After tea a good standard of ringing was maintained until 9 p.m. Ten towers were represented and methods rung in the evening included London and Bristol Surprise Major.
