RECORD-BREAKING BATH

FIGURATIVELY speaking, a roseate hue seemed to spread itself over the many and varied activities of the Central Council at Bath this Whitsun. The first visit to the Bath and Wells Diocesan Association in 75 years seems almost incredible when the richness of Somerset in towers and mellow bells is remembered. There seemed to be pent-up in the warmth of the welcome and hospitality 75 years of goodwill. No wonder the Council of 1965 will go down to posterity as a record-breaking gathering. The attendance of 158 members at the Council meeting eclipsed last year's figure of 140; peal ringing was fantastically successful with 13 scored out of 14 attempted by Tuesday; and where in the country could the final social gathering be held against such an historic background—a hall overlooking a Roman bath with its turgid brown water!

The happiness of this gathering, blessed by the sunniest week-end of this year, was no haphazard achievement but the outcome of careful planning. The Master, the Rev. H. F. Warren, who lives some 70 miles from Bath, had three trusty lieutenants to share in detailed arrangements. They were Mr. Gwilym Salmon, the general secretary, who lives at Wells; Mr. Eric Naylor, who started ringing at Rainham, Kent, in 1944, and has lived at Bath since 1951 and upon whose shoulders fell the on-the-spot arrangements at Bath; and finally Mr. J. Gilbert, who dealt with peals and towers. We should like to reiterate the thanks expressed to them publicly at the meeting.

But 1966 will be remembered as the end of an epoch. For 14 years Mr. Edwin A. Barnett has been secretary to the Council: now he is no longer in office. He inherited from Mr. G. W. Fletcher a model set-up of procedure which he has adhered to. Within this period there has been a mellowing of outlook. The Council seems to have departed from a "Thou shalt not" attitude to ringing generally, with due regard to basic principles, and recognises to the full that Guilds and Associations are masters of their own affairs. This was to be seen in a motion before the Council of endeavouring to have a uniform non-resident life membership subscription. The idea was completely out of favour. There has been no irritating bureaucracy emanating from the Council during Mr. Barnett's regime and absence of that sharpness in debate that rankles and pierces beneath the skin. Apart from his trained approach to secretarial duties, Mr. Barnett has served as a watchdog of the Exercise, never hesitating to write to improve public relations. The three years' freedom from office are richly deserved, and there is no question that at the end of the new triennial period, when a change in leadership occurs, his name will not be passed over lightly.

Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Bottomley received a hearty welcome when they mounted the platform to act as observers to the role they have been elected to play for the next three years. We think it is to the advantage of the Exercise that a major office of the Council should be held in the North of England. Yorkshire and Lancashire have worthily shared in the big advance in ringing during the last three or four years. We admire the courageous way they are endeavouring to stimulate interest by the creation of the Council of Yorkshire Ringing Societies, thus bringing about a unity and friendship towards the parent body. There is talent in the North that could well be employed on a national level. The present generation might well produce some Jasper Snowdons to give a lead to the present age.

Overseas activities were given due prominence at Bath in two ways. Mr. F. T. Blagrove, who has recently returned from Salisbury, gave a survey of ringing conditions today in Africa, and secondly there was the presentation to the Council of a very handsome book entitled "Australia, Yesterday, Today and Tomorrow." Inside is inscribed:

"Presented to the Central Council of Church Bell Ringers by St. Paul's Cathedral Society of Bell Ringers, Melbourne, Australia, as a token of our appreciation for the visit of a team of English bell ringers during September, 1965, on the tour known as Great Adventure II. May the friendship and enthusiasm created by this visit endure, and may the future bring many more Great Adventures to us both."

The gift was handed to the president by Mr. T. J. Lock. It was indeed a pleasure to hear Canon Thurlow congratulate Mr. Lock on the success of Great Adventure II and listen to the applause of the Council. Another overseas incident was the ringing of a peal at Crewkerne by members of the Australia and New Zealand Association of Bellringers. Change-ringing has now a chain of friendship encircling the world.

The meeting was a long one, necessitating an evening session. The main topic was "The Ringing World." This will be reported upon in full in our next issue, which will be one of 24 pages.

The Central Council Bathed in Sunshine at Bath

FIRST VISIT TO BATH AND WELLS IN 75 YEARS — RINGING AND BEER — BIGGEST EVER ATTENDANCE — CANON THURLOW RE-ELECTED FOR FINAL PERIOD — MR. VERNON BOTTOMLEY WELCOMED INTO OFFICE — TANGIBLE APPRECIATION OF MR. AND MRS. BARNETT'S WORK

THE happiest memories will be associated with Bath in the annals of the Central Council, where the 69th annual meeting was held on Whit Tuesday. A smiling Somerset countryside greeted the members as they toured a county rich in towers on the Sunday and Monday.

Proceedings on the Tuesday started with Holy Communion at Bath Abbey, which was largely attended. Bishop E. J. Wilson, Assistant Bishop, was the celebrant and he was assisted by Canon A. G. G. Thurlow, Preb. Geoffrey Lester, Rector of Bath Abbey, and the Rev. H. F. Warren, Master of the Bath and Wells Diocesan Association.

The business meeting was held in the Pump Rooms. The Mayor (Ald. R. Purdie) gave an official welcome, and the Assistant Bishop and the Master spoke respectively on behalf of the Diocese and the Bath and Wells Association. On the platform Canon Thurlow presided and with him were the vice-president (Mr. J. Freeman), the hon. secretary and treasurer (Mr. E. A. Barnett), the assistant hon. secretary (Mrs. Barnett) and the hon. librarian (Mr. F. E. Perrins).

The president said it was a great privilege to meet in this ancient city, which was not quite so old as "The Ringing World" implied.

The Mayor (Ald. R. Purdie) said he had come along that morning to bring them the greetings of the City of Bath, which was part of the Diocese of Bath and Wells. Its ringing society was some 75 years old, which he understood was the same age as their Association. In those 75 years that was the first occasion the Central Council had been to Bath. That morning they saw Bath in all its golden glory in the midst of a smiling Somerset.

RINGING AND THE COMMUNITY

The Mayor said he believed that in some countries they overdid this bell ringing business, particularly in the Mediterranean, where life was intolerable; sometimes in this country it occurred with the continuous solitary note of a bell. As far as the ringing of bells was concerned there was something uplifting when the bells spoke and when those bells identified themselves with the life of the community. He thought that if their ringing was identified with the life of the community it would help them in their aims. He thanked the Council and the ringers of the Bath and Wells Association for their service to the community and hoped that it would not be another 75 years before they came to Bath again.

Bishop E. J. Wilson, the Assistant Bishop of Bath and Wells, in giving the greetings of the Lord Bishop, said he thought they could gather from his address at Wells on Easter Monday of the affection and pride with which he held bells. He also welcomed them in the name of the incumbents of the diocese, which extended to the whole length of the county of Somerset, and, as they knew, Somerset was richly endowed with splendid towers, as was Norfolk, the county of their president.

The Bishop said he was pleased to see from "The Ringing World" the large number of towers in Somerset in which they had done their job and it must have cheered the hearts of many to hear the bells.

RINGING AND BEER

In his lifetime there had been a considerable change in their belfries. As a small boy he seemed to remember the close association between bell ringers and beer, and at times there was beer in the belfries. But now they had their sisters, aunts and nieces in their belfries and that had been a very real step forward, with ladies now occupying prominent places in the fellowship and sorority of the ringing world.

"Having been abroad for the best part of 20 years, when I returned 10 years ago what struck me was that bell ringing had become a youth movement, particularly in Somerset, and it is very encouraging to see the large number of boys and girls in the towers of the diocese." Their work and craft seemed twofold—to remind people of the claims of God and worship in the community life and their responsibility for furthering fellowship in the Church. It was when one read their journal one realised the responsibility ringers had for furthering the fellowship of the Church. This was seen by the welcome they gave to visitors and the concern they showed in young people, which was a good piece of social service.

BIRTHDAY GATHERING

A welcome on behalf of the Bath and Wells Association was voiced by the Master, the Rev. H. F. Warren, who said he would like to make it clear that the connection between ringing and beer had not ceased, except that it was not in the belfries—but ringing was still thirsty work.

Mr. Smallwood expressed surprise that the Council had never been to Somerset, particularly as they had one of the giants of the Exercise in the late Mr. Joe Dyke. That very day was his birthday, as they were born on May 31st, 1890. In connection with the Council's visit he would like to thank Messrs G. Salmon, Eric Naylor and John Gilbert for their work in making the arrangements. He wished them a successful meeting and hoped it would not be another 75 years before they came again.

ELECTION OF OFFICERS

the new hon. secretary and treasurer.

THE PRESIDENT

The hon. secretary reported that there was only one nomination for the office of president for 1966-69, Canon A. G. G. Thurlow, proposed by Mr. F. Sharpe and seconded by Mr. N. Golden. He declared Canon Thurlow elected as their president.

Canon Thurlow said he was exceedingly grateful to his proposer and seconder and the Council, who in their wisdom had not proposed and seconded someone else. "I had better repeat, as I said at great length when I was elected, that I shall not be standing in 1969 because of the unwritten rule which we arrived at."

THE VICE-PRESIDENT

Mr. John Freeman, who was proposed by Mr. Walter Ayre and seconded by Mr. J. Bray, was elected vice-president. There was no other nomination. Mr. Freeman thanked the Council.

NEW HON. SECRETARY

The president said, as they would see, Mr. Barnett retired and was not seeking re-election. The exceedingly important matter of electing a new hon. secretary and treasurer had been given a great deal of consideration, and after much care the name of Mr. Vernon Bottomley was put forward. No other proposal was submitted. Mr. Bottomley was proposed by him (the president) and seconded by Mr. Freeman, and it gave him the greatest possible pleasure and relief in announcing that from the end and clearing up of that meeting Mr. Vernon Bottomley would be the new secretary and treasurer of the Council.

The election was greeted with applause and Mr. Bottomley thanked the Council.

The president said it would be quite impossible to let the Barnetts go without saying something all too brief and all too inadequate, to voice their feelings as to what they had done in their official capacities. He was not going to make a long speech because he felt it would be improper and also because one assumed everyone read "The Ringing World" and they had read some sincere and warm-hearted tributes. Perhaps it would be best if he expressed on his own behalf and theirs how very warm was the regard in which they held them. No question had ever been too foolish not to get a good answer.

TANGIBLE RECOGNITION

Even secretaries did not know everything. "We thought we ought to do something of tangible recognition to appeal to your hearts and other portions of your anatomy. Teddy once promised to share his worldly goods with Olive. I think if Olive accepts this handsome handbag and looks inside it, there will be something to share and hand to Teddy."

The president then handed the bag to Mrs. Barnett, who opened it, looked inside, and handed an envelope to Mr. Barnett. The retiring secretary, when he looked at the cheque, visibly expressed pleasurable surprise. Mrs. Barnett looked equally surprised and very pleased, while delight in the ceremony was expressed by the warm applause of the Council.

Mr. Barnett, in reply, said it was difficult to find words, adequately to express their gratitude. "May I thank you all for the very kind gift to my wife and the generosity you have shown towards me. I would also like to thank those who have been kind enough to express appreciation in 'The Ringing World' of our efforts over the past 14 years."

"Firstly, I should like to say it was a very great privilege to have been secretary of the Council. We hope to be of service to the Council and the Exercise in the future but we would like a period to taste our liberty before we again become your servants."

"During the period of office we have got to know very many members of the Exercise, which we count as a privilege. For the future it is less likely that we shall make so many acquaintances; there are, however, a number of people here who we are meeting for the first time."

"Lastly, may I wish all the very best to Mr. and Mrs. Bottomley in the years that lie before them, I am quite sure they will do a splendid job for the Exercise; I know they will have your support."

Mrs. Barnett also thanked the Council and said she had enjoyed knowing people and receiving their friendship. They would now be able to get rid of a monstrosity in the form of a large steel cabinet which had taken up a corner of their dining room. She felt that the room would have to be redecorated.

Mr. F. W. Perrens was re-elected hon. librarian, having been proposed by Mrs. D. E. Colegate and seconded by Mrs. Staniforth. He promised to do his best for the next three years.

ELECTION OF HON. MEMBERS

The president announced that Mr. J. P. Fidler and Mrs. Marshall were not seeking re-election. Messrs. D. Hughes, H. N. Pitstow, L. Stilwell, P. L. Taylor, T. W. White and J. Willis were open for re-election and he suggested that three of the four vacancies be filled, leaving one in case of emergencies.

Th retiring members were then re-elected on the proposition of Mr. F. Sharpe, seconded by Mr. C. K. Lewis. New members elected were Mrs. Jeanne Bottomley, proposed by Mr. Eric Critchley and seconded by Mrs. Barnett; Mr. Frank Haines, proposed by Mr. D. Hughes and seconded by Mr. F. E. Collins; Mr. J. Garner-Hayward, proposed by Mr. F. E. Perrins and seconded by Mr. J. F. Smallwood.

Mr. H. N. Pitstow and Mr. Douglas Hughes were re-elected hon. auditors, proposed by Mrs. P. J. Staniforth, seconded by Mr. P. A. Corby.

Tributes to Faithful Servants

The Council stood while the following members and past members, whose deaths had been reported since Whitsun, 1965, were reported:—

Canon J. D. Pearson (died October, 1963), Mrs. G. W. Fletcher, W. H. Southeard, E. C. Gobey, J. T. Dyke, C. Harrison, T. Metcalfe, A. Paddon Smith, P. Crook, S. H. Symonds, G. L. Hewitt and D. H. Bennett. Mr. F. W. Perrens, in a tribute to Mrs. Fletcher, said he had known her for the past 50 years and said if she had been associated with the same tower as he was in his early ringing days she would have been debarred from entering. Such was the opinion of many of the clergy and ringers in those days that they thought the tower of a church was not the place for ladies. Fortunately Mrs. Fletcher was not debarred from the tower and in a very short time she became a very competent ringer on all numbers of bells, both tower- and handbells. She was also a very capable conductor.

Mrs. Fletcher came on the Council in 1915 as the representative of the Ladies' Guild. She did a tremendous amount of committee work and, as they knew, her husband was secretary of the Council for 21 years and they could well imagine the amount of work that involved. "With the passing of Mrs. Fletcher this Council loses a most devoted worker and many of us lose a very sincere friend."

Another tribute to Mrs. Fletcher came from Mrs. J. King, the president of the Ladies' Guild, who said that in 1912, when only 20 years of age, Mrs. Fletcher formed the Ladies' Guild. She was a brilliant ringer and conductor and was treated as an equal by men, but she wanted equality for all lady ringers and for their voice to be heard in ringing affairs.

And so the Ladies' Guild came to be formed and wonderfully organised by her. She was at times both its president and secretary and maintained a burning interest in its affairs throughout some 53 years. "Her death last September was a very sad blow to the Guild, but it made us think of the wonderful example her life can be to us all."

Mr. C. W. Pipe, in a reference to Mr. Stedman H. Symonds, who was captain at Lavenham, said he was a very kindly man and was famous for Stedman.

Mr. D. Burnett, in a tribute to Mr. W. H. Southeard, said he was the first member of the Truro Guild to be a member of the Central Council. He took a great interest in the Cathedral and was warden for many years. "We have lost a wonderful worker for ringing in the diocese."

Mr. J. F. Smallwood spoke of his memories of Mr. Joseph Dyke. He described him as a man of few words but a man of action, and everybody who knew him formed a high opinion of his style at the end of a rope. He was well loved in these parts and while secretary of the Bath and Wells Diocesan Association got round the county and enthused youth. "A great man and we all loved him."

Mr. P. L. Taylor spoke with gratitude of Mr. Colin Harrison, who taught him much about ringing. For nearly 40 years he was with them at Loughborough.

Mr. Cyril Crosswaite, who had known Mr. Peter Crook for 30 of his 80 years, said he thought it was true to say that his whole life was devoted to ringing, and the last peal he took part in and conducted was to celebrate his 60 years of ringing.

Mr. G. E. Fearn paid tribute to a predecessor of his as secretary of the St. Martin's Guild—Mr. A. Paddon Smith, who for 20 years was their highly respected hon. secretary. His good influence would last for many years to come, he said.

Mr. E. Hudson referred to Mr. Tom Metcalfe, who was for 40 years the kingpin of the Cleveland and North Yorkshire Association.

Central Council's Progress in Past Fourteen Years

HON. SECRETARY AND TREASURER'S REPORT

FOR the first time for many years there has been a reduction in representative membership, both the Shropshire Association and the Suffolk having dropped one member. Against this, the Stafford Archdeaconry Society has added one.

Numerous inquiries about the Barron Bell Trust and the Duke of Edinburgh's Award continued to be made. Most of the latter were in connection with the question of assessment, in which I could in general only repeat advice given in the "Handbook of Pursuits" issued by the Award office, which I would recommend those interested to obtain.

During the year Mrs. Winifred Turner kindly assigned to the Council the copyright of J. A. Trollope's "London Ringers and Ringing," which she presented to the library some years ago after the death of her husband, Mr. Ernest C. S. Turner. I am most grateful to Mrs. Turner for this gesture and to Mr. W. B. Cartwright for arranging the legal formalities. Mr. Cartwright also gave valuable advice on the form of agreement for hire of the Washington Cathedral film.

The following have now ceased to be members of the Council and we offer our thanks to them for their past services: J. P. Fidler (1951-66) and Mrs. C. C. Marshall (1945-66), hon. members; J. W. Clarke (1947-65), Miss A. D. Edwards (1963-65), J. Scott (1963-65), Chester; H. J. Shuck (1964-65), Dudley and Dist.; P. J. Eves (1960-65), Essex; R. J. Hooper (1960-65), Gloucester and Bristol; P. Morgan (1963-65), J. J. Webb (1951-65), Hereford; G. W. Critchley (1957-65), Hertford; Mrs. F. E. Dukes (1962-65), Irish; J. R. Cooper (1957-65), Kent; J. E. Burles (1963-65), R. Leigh (1963-65), Lancashire; C. W. Ottley (1963-65), London County; F. W. Goodfellow (1950-65), J. R. Mayne (1957-65), Middlesex; E. H. Edge (1960-65), North Staffs; Mrs. A. D. Barker (1961-65), D. J. Smith (1960-65), Oxford Dio.; Miss S. R. Collins (1963-65), Peterborough; F. E. Haynes (1950-65), St. Martin's, Birmingham; W. C. West (1945-65), Salisbury; R. B. Morris (1963-65), R. Newton (1960-65), Shropshire; F. E. Hawthorne (1950-65), S.R.C.Y.; B. M. Buswell (1956-65), D. H. Rooke (1960-65), Southwell; J. W. Blythe (1957-65), L. G. Brett (1957-65), Suffolk; G. W. Hughes (1957-65), Stafford Archdeaconry; Dr. D. N. Layton (1956-65), University of London; G. Benfield (1957-65), Yorkshire.

To end this, my last report, on a personal note, there are a number of people I would like to thank: First and foremost my wife, without whose help, encouragement and, when necessary, prodding me into activity, I could never have carried out the job; secondly, Mr. W. G. Wilson, who undertook in 1952 to see that the meeting papers were typed and duplicated and, with the active help of Miss C. L. Groves, has done so ever since, thereby saving the Council considerable expense and myself much anxiety; thirdly, Mr. J. F. Smallwood for his confidence in nominating me as your secretary, and Mr. F. E. Haynes for seconding in the absence of the late Mr. Albert Walker. Lastly, a whole host of people who have helped in many ways—making arrangements for Council meetings, assembling these papers, discussions over lunches and assistance on meeting days are some which come to mind, and of course I must not forget those actively concerned with the work of the Council and with "The Ringing World."

PERSONAL IMPRESSIONS

Perhaps I may be allowed a few personal impressions. I hope it would not be presumptuous to say that the Council has gone forwards rather than backwards during the past 14 years, though I would certainly not claim the credit for all this. There does, however, seem to be much less general criticism but this is not to say there is no room for improvement. I have always been very much a traditionalist and in its constitution and procedure the Council is little different now from what it became when my predecessor introduced a much more businesslike approach on taking office 35 years ago. A new look at some of its ways is probably overdue. I did at one time feel that it was too big, but came round later to the view that, within reason, the more people who can feel they have a part to play in its affairs, the better both for the Council and the Exercise generally.

This could come about in another way—the greatly increased turnover of membership in recent years. Of the present Council only 37 of the 164 representative members were members when I took office. In some ways this is all to the good; nevertheless there are merits in continuity but it is no doubt difficult to achieve a satisfactory balance.

One other noticeable change has been the marked aversion during the past ten years or so to rational discussion of matters concerning basic principles of change ringing. This is probably a reaction to the disproportionate amount of time which, both between the wars and for some years afterwards, the Council devoted to such matters, but I feel that the pendulum has now gone too far in the opposite direction. This was very noticeable at the 1964 meeting at Truro, when two motions put forward by representatives of the Durham and Newcastle Association were not, in my view, treated seriously and the Council was guilty of gross discourtesy to those concerned.

GREAT DEMAND FOR PUBLICATIONS

Against this there has, however, been a much greater appreciation of the Council's responsibilities for the welfare of the Exercise generally. The activities of the Sunday Service and Education Committee leading to the now well-established system of day- and week-end courses are a notable example. I confess to being doubtful at the outset of the value of this committee but am glad to have been proved wrong. Then, as is well known, sales or publications have increased enormously; in all, some 5,918 copies last year compared with 1,271 in 1952. The Beginners' Handbook of which almost 20,000 copies have been sold since it first appeared in 1959 is, of course, the best seller we have ever had. That there is at the present time a greater demand for publications on ringing than ever before is clear from the interest shown by commercial publishers recently, an interest from which both they and the Exercise have profited. My greatest regret is that no adequate history of change ringing exists. A sub-committee formed in 1957 to consider whether the compilation of such a history could be undertaken by the Council unfortunately did not recommend this. I think this was a wrong decision, but as the original idea was mine no doubt I am prejudiced!

From a financial point of view the Council has in effect become a small business, a far cry from 1931, when total receipts were £55, profit on publications £2, and the accounts were audited on the morning of the meeting. The capital account now shows a balance of some £10,500 compared with £1,877 when I became treasurer. Again I do not claim the credit for this except for having tried to encourage the issue of as many publications as possible, and the investment of as much of "The Ringing World's" money as could be spared—a suggestion which incidentally came from Mr. F. E. Dukes at the 1953 meeting and which met with some opposition in the early years. The Council is fortunate in that my successor will take a keen interest in its financial affairs. May I conclude by wishing him as happy a term of office as I have had. (Signed) E. A. BARNETT.

Mr. E. A. Barnett proposed and Mr. W. Ayre seconded the adoption.

Mr. A. V. Davis took exception to the opinion expressed by the hon. secretary that at Truro two notices of motion put forward by representatives of the Durham and Newcastle Association were not treated seriously and the Council was guilty of gross discourtesy to those concerned. He thought it would be better expressed as with some levity but not gross discourtesy.

The report was then adopted, the president thanking Mr. Barnett for the painstaking way he had compiled the report.

THE MINUTES

The minutes as published in "The Ringing World" of March 25th were adopted on the proposition of the hon. secretary, seconded by Mr. F. W. Perrins.

THE UNIVERSITY OF LONDON SOCIETY

The University of London Society's 22nd annual general meeting was held at St. Olave's Hall, London, on May 14th. The meeting was preceded by ringing at St. George's-in-the-East, St. Dunstan's, Stepney, and St. Olave's, Hart Street, where the service was conducted by the Rector, the Rev. Maurice Dean. After a sumptuous tea prepared by the ladies of the Society, the business meeting took place with the president, Mr. David Martin, in the chair.

After the reading of the minutes and correspondence, five new members were elected and welcomed by the president. In his report the Master, Mr. Roger Powell, mentioned the generally poor standard of turn-out on Sunday evenings. He referred also to the good ringing at St. Vedast's on Sunday mornings and reported that during the year 14 peals had been rung, including n-spliced Surprise Minor, Yorkshire Royal and Stedman Caters. The secretary-treasurer, Mr. Robert Dennis, reported the success of the annual dinner and of the annual tour, mentioning that the Society is now well installed in the "Tiger," and that four members had become engaged. He further reported a profit of £20 over the year, but anticipated heavier expenses during the coming one.

The meeting then proceeded to the election of officers, the Master thanking each one in turn for the work he had done for the Society during the past year, and Dr. Denis Layton for his work in one capacity or another over the past 20 years. Dr. Layton was retiring as vice-president. The officers for 1966-67 are as follows: President, David J. R. Martin (King's); vice-presidents, Philip Gray, Alan Thirst; Master, Timothy G. Pett (U.C.); secretary, David L. Cawley (King's); treasurer, John Pladdys (King's); Central Council representative, Alan Frost; auditor, Peter Layton; committee, Robert Dennis, Roger Powell, Chris Starbuck.

After discussion of matters of lesser importance, the chairman closed the meeting at 7.40.

Diary dates: General meeting: October 15th, 1966; annual dinner, February 11th, 1967; annual general meeting, May 6th, 1967.

Would members please note that all correspondence should be addressed to the secretary, David Cawley, King's College Hostel, Vincent Square, S.W.1. D.L.C.

Membership Drive During Coming Year

THE 81st annual general meeting of the Sussex County Association was held at Southover, Lewes, on May 14th. Ringing arrangements were made by the Southern Division Committee.

The outstanding feature of the meeting was the formation of a robed choir of 25 ringers (12 men, 12 ladies and one boy) drawn from various churches in the county. A short choir practice, taken by the choirmaster, was held before the service, which was conducted by the Vicar (the Rev. A. E. S. Hurd) assisted by two ringing clergy, the Rev. I. Paton (Danehill) and the Rev. P. L. Scott (Withyham).

Approximately 175 ringers and friends sat down to tea, an increase of over ten on the previous year, in the Church Hall, arranged and catered for by the committee of the Southern Division under the expert guidance of the Elphicks. The meeting was honoured by the presence of the Mayor of Lewes, Councillor A. C. Barber, and the Mayoress, who were welcomed by the Master, Mr. R. V. Johnson.

The business meeting followed, presided over by the Master of the Association, who welcomed the Vicars of Southover, Danehill, Withyham and Isfield. Messrs. Pat Cannon and Davis from Surrey and colleagues of the East Grinstead and District Guild. Among the apologies was one from Len Stilwell, who unfortunately had some business to attend to at Windsor and was missing his first annual general meeting for some years with much regret.

The chairman asked those present to stand in silence as a token of respect for those who had passed on during the year—Mr. George Apps, secretary of Cuckfield for 25 years, and Mr. G. J. Killick, of Ditchling, a member for many years.

The minutes of the 80th annual general meeting were read by the general secretary; the Divisional reports, already accepted by the various Divisions, were accepted en bloc.

The treasurer (Mr. W. Leslie Weller), in his report, mentioned an increase in subscriptions of £17, the payment of two years' "Ringing World" charges, a grant of £25 to Billingshurst and a profit for 1965 of approximately £40. Next year the affiliation fee will disappear (this was £70 for 1965), therefore every effort must be made to increase the present membership, which had fallen from 787 in 1964 to 588 in 1965.

The secretary, in his report, asked all ringing members to make a special effort to bring back the members of towers who, at the moment, did not support the Association. Membership must be increased if the report was to be kept at the present standard.

It was agreed that the treasurer should look into the position of investments in War Stock with a view to transferring to Unit Trust.

ELECTION OF NEW MEMBERS

Nine new members and three non-resident members were elected. Mr. A. E. Laker, of Balcombe, was elected an honorary life member in recognition of his many years of service to the Association.

The president, the Bishop of Chichester, and all the vice-presidents were re-elected en bloc, as were the Master, general secretary, peal secretary, treasurer, auditors and trustees.

The following Central Council members, elected by their Divisions, were ratified: Mrs. F. I. Hairs, Messrs. R. W. R. Percy, V. Sheppard and W. Leslie Weller.

The following recommendations from the General Committee were agreed by the meeting:—

Peal fees to be sent to the hon. peal secretary by the conductor of the peal and not to the treasurer.

A general committee meeting will be held on the last Saturday in October and the first Saturday in March every year.

The draft "Form of Service" be sent to the Bishop for approval.

It was agreed to hold an Association dinner during 1967, to be arranged by the general committee.

It was suggested that a week-end ringing course be arranged at Lodge Hall, near Pulborough, by a committee headed by Mr. G. Francis and Mr. W. Leslie Weller.

Mrs. R. J. Osborn inquired whether a microphone could be used at future annual general meetings as owing to the increase in attendance it was difficult to hear what was going on.

Mr. George Francis mentioned that the motions before the Central Council could have far-reaching effects on the Association and members should be given some idea of how to vote.

Mr. George Pullinger suggested that they should leave any decisions to the good counsels of members to weigh up the various points of views raised and vote to the best advantage of the Association.

The chairman mentioned that the collection at the service was £8 8s. 3d., and would be given to the Sussex Churches Campaign.

LIVERPOOL UNIVERSITY SOCIETY

At the annual general meeting of the Liverpool University Society, held on May 7th, the following officers were elected for the session 1966-67: Master, David F. Moore; secretary, F. David Keast, 1, Glentworth Terrace, Lostwithiel, Cornwall; treasurer, V. David Jenner; committee member, Miss Julie Lethbridge.

It was decided to hold next year's annual tour between April 9th-15th. A reunion week-end for non-resident members, during which the annual general meeting will be held, is planned for the first week-end in May next year. This year's tour will be in Warwickshire from September 15th-20th (approx.), while the 1967 dinner will be on February 25th. P. A. F.

GUILDFORD, SURREY.—At the Cathedral, on May 22nd, 1,259 Grandsire Caters: Miss R. Weal 1, J. H. Payton 2, Miss C. White 3, Miss D. M. Street 4, H. J. Russell 5, T. J. Wellen 6, F. Housden 7, Miss E. A. Stevinson 8, D. Tubbs 9, M. D. Fuller 10. First of Caters 1, 2, 5, 6, 8 and 10. For Evensong.

CONGRATULATIONS TO MR. A. R. PEAKE'S BAND

Dear Sir,—I would like to offer heartiest congratulations to Mr. Anthony R. Peake and his band on their fine performance in ringing the record peal in 64 Spliced Surprise Major. I have followed with great interest their progress as they made their way through the various compositions of mine, finally equalling and now surpassing the record of 53 methods which was established in June, 1955, by my band of the Yorkshire Association. I know from personal experience the long hours of study which a performance of this nature involves.

I am pleased, too, to include the name of Mr. John R. Mayne inasmuch that he, too, has conducted the peal in 53 methods. Perhaps the new record of 64 methods might not stand for almost 11 years this time.

—Yours sincerely,
W. ERIC CRITCHLEY.
Doncaster.

Dear Sir,—May I, as one who has been privileged to ring in some of their more modest peals of Spliced Surprise Major, congratulate Anthony R. Peake and his band on their record achievement at Stratton on May 21st. I am sure the band would be first to say that it was primarily to Tony's initiative and leadership that such an attempt was possible.

A special feature of this record is that, apart from peal attempts, the band does not normally ring together. It speaks very highly therefore of the way each member did his homework!—Yours sincerely,

ROGER KEELEY.
Marlborough, Wilts.

MINIMUS IN AFRICA

Dear Sir,—I was delighted to see the quarter peal, published recently, from Que Que, Rhodesia; congratulations to the band of ringers.

For the record, a 1,272 of Bob Minimus was rung at Cape Town on May 10th, 1960, and appeared in "The Ringing World" in October that year. It was rung in despair at meeting short, knowing full well that four other ringers were playing cards in the Rectory next door! But even Minimus failed to move them.—Yours sincerely,

VICTOR SHEPPARD.
Brighton.

PETERBOROUGH DIOCESAN GUILD PRESIDENT RETIRES

The 1966 annual meeting of the Peterborough Diocesan Guild was held in the Daventry Branch on May 21st, 12 towers being open for ringing during the afternoon and evening. The Guild service was held in the Church of the Holy Cross, Daventry, and the retiring president, Canon G. F. Turner, was the preacher.

After an excellent tea, the annual business meeting took place in the Abbey Buildings, Daventry, with the president in the chair. Canon Turner began by welcoming the many visitors and then the company stood in silence for a few moments in memory of those Guild members who had died during the past year. The secretary (Mr. E. Billings) stated that already this year the finances of the Guild were in a stronger position than last year, mainly due to the tower affiliation scheme and the peal levy.

When the 1965 annual report was adopted it was decided to withdraw from the Guild's records a peal of Grandsire Triples rung at Oakham in January, 1965, as the ringer of the second was not a paid-up member of the Guild.

Canon G. F. Turner resigned from the presidency of the Guild and the Rev. Ernest G. Orland was elected to this office. The other Guild officials, Mr. E. Billings (secretary and treasurer), Mr. J. H. Bluff (Master) and Mr. G. F. Roome (auditor), were all re-elected.

The summer festival was arranged for September 3rd at Bozeat, the annual dinner for October 22nd at Northampton, and next year's annual general meeting for May 6th at Rothwell.

The retiring president (Canon G. F. Turner) and Mr. Patrick I. Chapman (a former Master) were elected life honorary members of the Guild. Representatives of eight Branches spoke in appreciation of Canon Turner's good work for the Guild during his nine years in office, and the Master (Mr. J. H. Bluff) spoke of Mr. Chapman's work as Master and in connection with the restoration and augmentation of Daventry bells.

On behalf of the Guild, Mr. Roger W. Smith presented a well-filled wallet to Canon Turner as a token of the Guild's appreciation of all his effort and work, and a young lady member of the Guild (Miss Katharine M. Thorley) presented a bouquet to Canon Turner for Mrs. Turner. Canon Turner expressed his deep regret at having to retire because of the increased pressure of work.

There followed a general discussion on the three motions on the agenda at this year's Central Council meeting and all those who spoke were against all the three.

The meeting ended with an omnibus vote of thanks, which was proposed by Mr. R. H. Daw and seconded by Mr. E. C. Buckby.

HANDBOOK, 1956

Dear Sir,—A printed leaflet indicating the additions and amendments that have been made to the Rules and Decisions of the Central Council since the publication of this Handbook has been prepared and, for the benefit of those who already have a copy, is now available from the undersigned on receipt of a stamped addressed envelope.—Yours faithfully,

F. W. PERRENS.

YORKSHIRE RINGING SOCIETIES' RINGING FESTIVAL

The second annual ringing festival of the Joint Council of Yorkshire Ringing Societies was held in the area covered by the Beverley and District Society. Towers available were: Walkington, Pocklington, Hessle, Kirk Ella, Beverley Minster, Sutton-on-Hull, St. Mary's, Beverley, Cottingham and Market Weighton.

The service in the Minster was attended by approximately 200 ringers and friends and the Mayor and Mayoress of Beverley (Mr. and Mrs. T. Leak). The Rev. M. P. Hiron preached and the order of service was that of the Beverley and District Society.

During the singing of the 150th Psalm four of the Beverley and District members rang a handbell touch, and the collection was divided between the Minster's cost for the service and the appeal for Christian Aid Week.

Tea was served in the Memorial Hall and 150 sat down to an excellent meal, and afterwards Mr. Edward Hudson, the chairman, welcomed all present. He also thanked the organisers—Mr. David S. Johnson and Mr. Kenneth Kirk—and their fellow workers on the sub-committee for a good job well done. The festival, he said, was as successful as the first one at Wakefield, the tea had been beautiful, and especially the local custom of apple pie with cheese, and caused laughter by quoting: "Apple pie without the cheese is like a kiss without the squeeze." He thanked the Minster authorities, the Rev. M. P. Hiron for his sermon, the boys of the choir and the organist. Welcoming Mr. Vernon Bottomley as the newly-elected president of the Yorkshire Association, and Mrs. Bottomley as the treasurer, he wished Mr. Bottomley success in his nomination to be the secretary of the Central Council.

Further ringing then took place on the bells available in the area. A. F.

EAST KENT RINGING SCHOOL

Ringers from the Ashford, Canterbury and Maidstone Districts forgathered on May 21st at the delightful Church of St. Martin, Cheriton, for instruction from the county's experts at the one-day ringing school.

Prayers in church conducted by the Rev. C. Munt were followed by an excellent talk from Mr. A. Waddington on raising and maintaining a local band. The company of 60 then adjourned to the Church Hall for the first lecture on elementary conducting by Dr. Donald Niblett. The final session of the morning, instruction in rope splicing (given by Mr. A. Berry), proved popular, everyone attempting a splice for the purpose of a competition. This was judged by Mr. B. J. Luck, and prizes (quarter's subscription to "The Ringing World") were awarded to Mr. L. Sweatman as an expert and to Mrs. B. L. Marks as a beginner.

Practical sessions after lunch in bell control and simple method ringing took place at Cheriton and Newington under the patient instruction of Messrs. B. Groves, M. L. Howe, N. J. Davies and P. Carter. Also during the afternoon Mr. G. Evenden gave an interesting talk, with first-class visual aids, on belfry maintenance, followed finally by more advanced instruction on conducting by Dr. Niblett.

After a sumptuous tea prepared by the ladies of Cheriton band Mr. J. Willis thanked all whose hard work had contributed to the day's success. R. J. S.

SOUTHWELL DIOCESAN GUILD Newark District

The meeting and District round of the Crawford Cup contest, held at the Church of All Saints, Coddington, on May 21st, proved to be a great success on all events.

The customary fine weather for this event again prevailed, and the small churchyard seemed to be crowded with people listening to the ringing. For the first time since the District was reduced in size four years ago, four teams entered and all rang Minor. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bradley once again acted as judges with their usual meticulous care. Balderton were placed first with 884 faults, and Newark and Sutton "A" tied with 104 faults, but Sutton incurred a penalty of 10 for failing to set one bell at the end, and reduced to third place. The younger members of Sutton "B" team made a commendable effort with 137 faults.

The Vicar, the Rev. P. Wright, conducted a shortened Evensong and afterwards between 50 and 60 people sat down to a very enjoyable tea prepared by local ringers and friends. A lovely iced cake had been given to the Coddington ringers and, with the permission of the Vicar, it was agreed to raffie it off, and the proceeds were shared between Coddington Bell Fund and the Guild Bell Repair Fund. It was obviously all fixed, as the District chairman, Mr. F. W. Midwinter, won the cake!

No less than 13 new ringing members were elected at the business meeting, eight from the newly-formed band at North Muskham, and five from Coddington. Mr. H. H. Selby, of Coddington, was elected a vice-president.

The general ringing which followed in the evening covered a wide variety of standards, and was accomplished with much enthusiasm.

The hospitality of Coddington and its ringers is much appreciated. B. N. R.

ROCHESTER (K.C.A.) DISTRICT'S WEEK-END TOUR

The second annual week-end tour of the Rochester District took place on April 29th to May 1st. The evening of the 29th was spent in travelling to Abingdon, where the night was spent.

Leaving Abingdon in the morning (complete with a banner), we travelled the short distance to Eynsham (six bells), where we were impressed by the local band's successes in striking competitions. Then on through the lovely Gloucester countryside to the six at Great Barrington. This concluded the ringing for the morning. A coach journey then followed through more good scenery to our next tower (a stop for refreshment being made on the way) at Minsterworth. Unfortunately the bells are very noisy and, with long ropes, we were unable to do them justice. We then journeyed further west to the six at Littledean and then through the Dean Forest to the splendid eight at Monmouth. It was a pity to leave these bells but time was pressing.

After obtaining tea we travelled through some more wooded countryside to have a quick look at Tintern Abbey, and on to the ten at Chepstow, where although we only rang call changes and Grandsire, the ringing was the best of the tour, and finally on to our last tower of the day at Usk, where we were pleased to see the work put in by the local ringers. We then travelled to our hotel at Hereford.

Sunday was mainly a sightseeing day, but it started by some members skipping breakfast to grab All Saints' and then moving on to the official tower at St. Nicholas', where the ringing was followed by a said Communion. We then journeyed homeward via Stratford, stopping for lunch next door to Anne Hathaway's cottage. Following lunch, we arrived at Home Farm to find that there are now 15 bells; however, we only rang the back six, and eventually five, after we managed to break the rope of the treble. Time came to leave, and we headed for the last tower, at Deddington, where we rang Kent Treble Bob Major. A. R. T.

MR. W. H. WILSON

From Dublin we record with regret the death on May 14th, at the age of 77 years, of Mr. William Harry Wilson, president of the St. Patrick's Society. Mr. Wilson learned to ring in 1907 at the Cathedral, under Gabriel Lindoff, joining the band which laid the foundation of change ringing in Ireland. During a long and active ringing career he had served the Church, and St. Patrick's particularly, humbly and faithfully. Until ill-health prevented him climbing to the belfry several years ago he was a regular Sunday service ringer.

He was a competent change ringer, accurate striker and ever-willing guide to beginners. For his services to ringing he was elected an hon. life member of the I.A.C.R. He had rung 17 peals.

"Willer" was a kind man, most meticulous in keeping the Society records when secretary for many years; keenly interested in life in general, he was excellent company and a rare judge of malt. Outside the belfry his great interest lay in Freemasonry, being a P.M. of the Craft and P.K. Royal Arch.

Before the burial service, conducted by the Very Rev. Dean Armstrong, the bells of the Cathedral were rung half-muffled to Minor, and in the evening a quarter peal of Grandsire Triples was rung as a last token of respect to a great lover of the Exercise by T. H. Wilson 1, R. A. Vere Hodge 2, W. T. Farrell 3, Helen M. Hubert 4, C. J. Reede (cond.) 5, C. A. Lewis 6, R. I. George 7, H. H. Brown 8. The same composition was rung to celebrate Mr. Wilson's golden wedding in 1964.

BATH AND WELLS DIOCESAN ASSOCIATION

The May meeting of the Taunton Branch was held in particularly happy circumstances at North Curry. The charming village with its beautiful old church, the warm and friendly welcome from the young Vicar, the sunny afternoon and the bountiful tea at the Angel all combined to make it a memorable occasion.

At the business meeting six new members were elected from the local tower, where the Vicar, the Rev. M. D. Lewis, himself a ringer, is getting together an enthusiastic team of men and boys. Mr. Gordon Baldam, of Lyng, was also given a cordial welcome as a new member of the Branch.

Ringing was much enjoyed and varied from rounds to Kent Treble: Bob Major and Stedman Triples, one or two particularly good touches bringing out to the full the fine tone of this ring of eight with a tenor of 17 cwt.

SOUTHWELL GUILD

Two meetings were held by the Bingham District during May—on the 7th at Willoughby to coincide with the gift day, and on the 14th at Cotgrave for the District round for the Crawford Cup.

Ten new members were elected at Willoughby and the next meeting was fixed for Gedling on July 9th.

Mr. H. Rooke judged the contest, when the ringing was generally good. Gedling (46 faults) and Shelford (49) go forward to the final. Other competitors were Whatton (66), Holme Pierrepont (68) and Radcliffe (93).

The dedication of a new treble, augmenting the bells at Willoughby to six, was performed on May 8th by the Rev. A. H. Hayward, a former Vicar, in the presence of Mrs. H. Millard, the donor. Ringers from Holme Pierrepont and Puddington rang and at the close of the service were joined by Mr. Paul Taylor.

In connection with the rehallowing of Rougham bells (page 355) mention should be made of the work of Mr. Cyril Hancock, the District chairman, who spent hours with Mr. Arthur Fidler in getting the bells down and replacing and painting them.

BELFRY GOSSIP

A family peal took place at East Ilsley, Berks, on May 21st, when five Hibberts and three Chilcotts rang a peal of Stedman Triples.

The dedication of the new ring of bells at Easthampstead takes place next Saturday, June 11th, at 3 p.m.

The Society of Biddenden Youths would like to remind all their friends that the tower will be closed for redecoration from June 12th-16th inclusive.

Missed from the Central Council was a familiar figure—Mr. J. T. Dunwoody, of Northern Ireland. The seamen's strike prevented him from making the journey.

Mr. Alfred E. Rushton, president of the Bedfordshire Association, is entering St. Bartholomew's Hospital, London, for an operation in a few days' time. Our good wishes will accompany him.

Instead of putting flowers on graves the people of Brown Edge, Staffordshire, have provided new pews of fine figured Japanese oak. The reseatng was commemorated by a peal on the bells.

The Farnham District at its quarterly meeting at Ash, Surrey, had a silent remembrance to Miss Mary Bragg, of Aldershot, who died of injuries in a road accident a day earlier.

The quarter peal rung at East Retford on May 25th revived an old custom, discontinued 50 years ago, of ringing on Mayor-making day. The Mayor responsible is supposed to have said: "I didn't ask them to ring for me—why should I pay them?" At this the ringers took umbrage. The present generation of ringers makes no financial conditions.

COMMONWEALTH DAY QUARTER AT WINDSOR

One of the traditional ringing days at Windsor Castle is May 24th, Commonwealth Day. Participating in the ringing were Mr. Walter Knight, of Narramurra, Australia, and Mrs. Jean Dunham of Vancouver, Canada. Mrs. Dunham, better known as Miss Jean Broomfield, one of the late George Gilbert's splendid young ladies' band at Burnham, Bucks, was on a short visit to her parents. She had not touched a bell rope for just on 15 years, but on May 21st accompanied the Slough bellringers on their outing to Portsmouth and Chichester. She very soon found her touch and by the end of the day was quite proficient again. She rang 50 peals before emigrating to Canada, and it was a pity that her short stay did not permit of a peal being arranged.

She did, however, prior to ringing at Windsor Castle, take part in a quarter peal of Plain Bob Major at Windsor Parish Church together with Walter Knight, specially arranged for this Commonwealth occasion. Mr. Frank Blagrove, of Windsor, had landed in England only the day before from Salisbury, Rhodesia, and the band deeply regretted his inability to stand in at such short notice. The quarter appears on the appropriate page.

YORKSHIRE REVEALS ITS METTLE

The peal of Spliced Surprise in nine methods, rung at Penistone on May 22nd, is believed to be the first all-the-work peal of that number of methods to be rung strictly silent and non-conducted by a resident band of the Yorkshire Association.

Three of the "inside" ringers especially are to be congratulated on this performance, as none of them has yet conducted a peal of Spliced Surprise. They are Mrs. Jeanne E. Bottomley, Frederick A. Munday and Stuart Armeson. The band has now rung Mr. Pitman's peals in four, five, six and nine methods.

A NORTH WEALD TRIBUTE

Mr. Harry King, a ringer at North Weald since 1905 and tower captain since 1943, has just retired after 25 years as churchwarden. In recognition of his loyal and devoted service to the Church a special service was held on Sunday, May 29th, during which the Rev. T. C. Thorpe presented Harry with an illuminated address containing a copy of the inscription on the treble bell, which is to bear his name. In honour of the occasion a peal was rung the previous evening by some of his friends in the Essex Association. We are sure that his many friends will join us in wishing him many more years of continued ringing, health and happiness.

AVON AMATEURS' WEEK-END

Despite obvious qualms about Friday 13th, Avon Amateurs' fourth annual tour, based at Torouay, got off to a fine start at Clyst Honiton.

On Saturday a circular tour taking in Paulton, Berrymore, Totnes, Buckfast, Woborough, Teignmouth and Bahhacombe produced some enjoyable ringing, the highlight being a short touch on "Hosannah" at Buckfast Abbey. Having sung for our supper, the day was concluded with ten pin bowling by the majority of the party.

After Sunday morning ringing at Unton St. Mary, Torouay, the afternoon was spent relaxing in the sun at Exmouth. Our thanks to tower captains and incumbents. L. P.

FROM THE NEW HON. SECRETARY AND HIS ASSISTANT

We are very grateful to the president for his thoughtfulness in not calling upon us formally to acknowledge our respective elections at the Bath meeting. On such occasions a few previously well-chosen words carefully rehearsed in front of the mirror invariably fall flat and those spoken spontaneously make one feel hot and cold for weeks afterwards.

We would, however, like to take this opportunity of thanking the Council for the very cordial reception it gave to us and of saying how we wish we could share the confidence thus expressed. We have been encouraged and heartened by the many offers of assistance we have received and we shall endeavour to take only reasonable advantage of this goodwill. We hope you will all be forbearing during the transition period.

We hope, too, that people will not hesitate to make themselves known to us: if necessary for the second and subsequent times. One of us has attained the age when the remembrance of faces is difficult and of names well high impossible and it is not always practicable for the other to hiss an irritable reminder!

JEANNE and VERNON BOTTOMLEY.

MR. FRANK LUFKIN RETIRES

Mr. Frank Lufkin, the well-known Essex ringer, retired last week from the Essex Fire Service after 28 years' service. Born at Prittlewell, he started ringing in the Parish Church there at the age of 17, and his peal total has reached 654. He has a number of long lengths to his credit, including 22,400 Plain Bob Major at Kirby-le-Soken, which is the greatest number of changes rung on church bells. He has also in his portfolio the record of Bob Royal, 12,740 changes, and 18,000 Minor.

Since 1945 he has been a member of the Central Council. He was Association peal secretary for 11 years, Master of Prittlewell tower for 25 years, and Master of the North-East Essex District for three years.

SOMERSET VILLAGE'S FINE EFFORT

For 40 years the bells of St. Peter's Church, Ilton, had been lying idly on the floor of the tower, having been lowered when the tower was rebuilt soon after World War I. "If I come, these won't stay there long," commented the Rev. H. E. A. Jackson, the present Vicar, on his first visit in 1961.

There existed a small bell fund of £139, raised mainly when the nearby R.A.F. station was in operation. On this small fund it was decided to rehang the bells; Messrs. John Taylor were commissioned to do the work at a cost of £1,544. The four old bells dating from the early 1600's were rehung with modern steel fittings, the old canons being retained. These were dedicated by the Bishop of Bath and Wells on Whit Sunday, 1963.

In the meantime a small but enthusiastic band of ringers was formed from scratch and it was decided to increase the ring to six, and just a year later the Bishop came again to dedicate the new trebles. The total cost was £2,171, and of this £1,707 had to come from this village with a population of under 700. Now comes the happy news that all the money has been found and Ilton bells are ringing again as they were nearly four centuries ago.

SONNING STRIKES AGAIN!

Competing in the Sonning Deanery Branch of the O.D.G. is certainly not one-sided, as was proved by Sonning winning the seventh annual striking contest held at Twyford on May 21st.

Perhaps it was a case of "the seven year itch" for this band won the very first competition. In striking back to the fore they produced some excellent Doubles ringing—enough to make the ground searching listeners scratch the church path gravel as they wandered and wondered about their own chances.

Runners-up, Easthampstead, rang with rhythm to a highly commendable tenor turned in to Minor. Hurst "A" team came a very close third with the standard of Stedman that invariably gets them a place. The results for the statisticians were Sonning 26 faults, Easthampstead 33 and Hurst "A" 35.

Major Bragg and Mr. Viggers adjudicated in their usual efficient manner, giving valuable advice and accurate comment, as has been their consistent record during their service to this Branch over the last seven and five years respectively.

In their opening words high praise was given to the Binfield team for their keenness as novices. Entering the contest for the first time, the Twyford tower was also a "first" for the entire team. A band with this sort of enthusiasm will no doubt be heard again and their example should be noted by the towers who did not enter a team yet have capable ringers.

The Rev. Harcourt Trevor, Branch chairman, gladly seen in good health again, thanked, on behalf of the members, the organisers and helpers of this enjoyable event in our ringing calendar.

Beneficial ringing and friendly rivalry have brought to this Branch a standard (now carried by Sonning to the Guild Competition) which improves each year, thus establishing the wisdom and forethought of those who instigated striking competitions. S. G. S.

CHEW DEANERY BRANCH STRIKING COMPETITION

The Rev. J. G. M. Scott, of Clawton, Devon, made the long journey to act as judge for the fourth annual striking competition held at Kingston Seymour on May 21st. The test piece was 120 changes of Doubles or Minor. Teams were confined to regular Sunday service bands and towers which normally combine forces on Sundays were allowed to enter a joint team.

Five towers, including one newcomer to the competition, competed, plus a scratch team made up on the spot from the spectators. This latter team, of course, was not competing.

After tea in the village hall, Mr. Scott opened his comments with details of Devonshire call change competitions and incidentally demonstrated his fine command of the Devonshire dialect! Kingston Seymour, on their own ground, but with no previous experience of competition ringing, were placed first with 104 faults, Nailsea with Backwell a close second with 104 faults, then third Wraxall (15), fourth Portbury (17) and fifth Yatton (18½). The scratch team had 144 faults.

Mr. Scott and his churchwarden co-navigator were warmly thanked for undertaking a 240-mile round trip on our behalf. M. J. H.
