Church of St. John-the-Baptist, Windsor

By WILLIAM BUTLER

THE Church of St. John-the-Baptist, Windsor, occupies a commanding position in the High Street, adjacent to the historic Guildhall built by Sir Christopher Wren and beneath the shadow of the "most romantic castle in the world". A church has stood on this site for nearly a thousand years; the whole area is steeped in history.

Records show that the first church was given, together with that from Old Windsor, to the Abbey of Waltham Holy Cross, Essex, in 1184 by Henry II. This church was almost completely destroyed by the three-month siege of Windsor Castle by King John's French and English opponents in 1216 and had to be rebuilt soon after.

The next church was "a vast structure, with at least eight gabled roofs". It had a central tower that supported a large turret which housed the bells and also the clock. In 1479 the church authorities sold this clock for 6s. 8d. to the Castle, and it was repaired so well that it kept going for the next 200 years! This was the church where Izaak Walton—the "Compleat Angler"—brought his son, William, to be christened in 1636. However, the church was neglected and by the mid-18th century only one service was held each Sunday, and this was only attended by the Mayor and Corporation and their personal friends. Most of the townsfolk worshipped at St. George's Chapel, Windsor Castle, where four services were held each Sunday. The "Windsor Guide" for 1793 describes the church thus: "The Parish Church is a spacious, antient, ill-built fabrick, the pews being so constructed and appropriated as to exclude the majority of the inhabitants from attending Divine Service."

Eventually it was found that the foundations and walls were unsafe, and the tower was taken down by Easter, 1816. "The Times" of August 17th, 1820, carried the news that the final demolition of the church had begun.

The present building was started on September 15th, 1820, and was completed in June, 1822, at a cost of £14,000. The diocesan architect in 1869 advised against any attempt to beautify it as he regarded it as a waste of money. Fortunately, others did not agree, and Teulon made some improvements to give the church its present appearance.

THE BELLS

The bells have had an interesting and chequered career. Their first mention can be found amongst the extracts that Ashmole fortunately made of the old churchwardens' accounts for 1583 before they were accidentally lost. This entry records the sum of £21 11s. 6d. being spent on repairing the steeple and bells. About this time there were five bells, for an entry in the accounts for 1673-74 reads: "Agreed with Mr. Darby, Bellfounder of Southwark for £50, of which he hath received one pound five shillings in payement conditionally that he make of the five Bells six good and tuneable Bells; the five hinde being equal in the notes with the 5 that are now in being and to make a new frame for the treble, to cast new brasses for all the Bells and to be at the charge of taking them downe hanging them upp making good all the wheeles defraying all chardges of Iron worke and carpenters worke and to secure them for a year and a day."

Mr. F. Sharpe, in his excellent "Church Bells of Berkshire", notes that this founder was Michael Darby who although described as "of Southwark" was actually an itinerant bellfounder. Further entries referring to the casting indicate that the bells were cast nearby.

These bells were only in use for the next 37 years, for in 1711 all the bells were recast into a ring of eight by Richard Phelps, of Whitechapel. All the expenses for this were paid by the Hon. Samuel Masham, who was colferer to Queen Anne. Nineteen years later the third and seventh were recast by Richard Phelps, and there are many records of these bells being rung until the tower was pulled down in 1816. The bells were stored whilst the new church was built and were then rehung in a new frame, strengthened with some of the old wood from the earlier one. The sixth, seventh and tenor were recast by Thomas Mears in 1822, who two years later recast the fourth. These are the present bells, a fine, melodious ring, all from the Whitechapel Foundry. The inscriptions are as follows:

Treble.—THE GIFT OF THE HONOURABLE SAMUEL MASHAM, ESQ: COFFERER TO QUEEN ANN 1711. 5-0-5.

Second.—RICHARD PHELPS MADE ME 1711. 5-0-16.

Third.—R. PHELPS FECIT 1730. 5-3-15.

Fourth.—I. MEARS OF LONDON FECIT 1824. 6-3-19.

Fifth.—JOHN ELDRIDGE RICHARD MORRIS CHRISTOPHER CLARK CHURCH WARDENS 1711. 7-2-20.

Sixth.—T. MEARS OF LONDON FECIT 1822. 9-3-9.

Seventh.—MESSRS THOS. PHIPPS HY. COOMES & THOS. BIGG CHURCH WARDENS 1730. RECAST BY T. MEARS OF LONDON 1822.

I AND MY SEVEN SISTERS HERE WERE GIVEN BY THE COFFERER WHOSE NAME IF YOU DESIRE TO KNOW

MY ELDEST SISTER WILL IT SHOW. 13-0-19.

Tenor.—THE GIFT OF SAMUEL MASHAM, ESQ. COFFERER TO HER MAJESTY QUEEN ANN IN THE YEAR 1711. ALEXR. STAPLES THOS. BRYER RICHD HOPE CHURCH WARDENS NEW CAST 1822 THOS ADAMS THOS. JENNER WM. LEGH. CHURCH WARDENS T. MEARS OF LONDON FECIT. 17-2-11.

The frame was restored, the bells tuned and rehung in 1930 by Mears and Stainbank. The record book of "The Established Society of Ringers of New Windsor" dates from 1787 and was obviously continued from an earlier book. Although originally established to ring at the Castle and at St. John's, the Society split into two after an angry disagreement in 1813, never to merge again. The fascinating story of these ringers is worthy of a complete article. In 1715 one of them was called as a witness in the alleged "rigged" general election in Windsor. The next year the ringers were locked out of the Castle ringing chamber by order of the Lieut. Governor for not ringing when ordered! In 1824 one of the ringers was killed by one of the recently-rehung bells. The story of these and other interesting aspects of ringing at Windsor must wait till a more suitable time.

ST. ALBANS DISTRICT DAY OUT

The outing on September 27th got off to a flying start although the organiser, who had insisted on us all being at the Blacksmiths at 8 a.m., arrived ten minutes late. The first tower was Magdalen College, Oxford, and ringing here included Spliced Surprise Royal. A conducted tour of Oxford followed and we eventually arrived at New College and kept the bells going to a variety of methods. At our next tower, St. Martin and All Saints', having a good light eight, a course of Glasgow was successfully brought round. Lunch followed and there was just time for a quick drink before boarding the boat at Folly Bridge for a pleasant trip down the Thames to Abingdon, which we reached in good time to ring on the six at St. Nicholas' Church. The final tower of the day was at West Wycombe. Unfortunately we arrived here in the dark and as no one was very sure of the way to the church, which is perched on the top of a very steep hill, we left the coach and scrambled up the grassy slope. In spite of the climb we managed some reasonable ringing. After a stop for refreshments we arrived back at St. Albans, with half-an-hour to closing time. After a very enjoyable day.

TOLERANCE BETWEEN YOUNG AND OLD

AN APPEAL TO THE KENT COUNTY ASSOCIATION

Mr. D. Paul Smith, at the annual dinner of the Kent County Association held at the New Hackwood Hotel, Bromley, on September 27th, called attention to the apparent antagonism which existed between the older and younger generation of ringers. Tolerance between the generations would help strengthen the Association.

Mr. E. A. Barnett, the Association chairman, presided over a company of 98 ringers and guests, and after the loyal toast he welcomed the company to the Lewisham District. He gave a special welcome to Mrs. Mitchell who, until her recent move to Sussex, had been an active Kent ringer, and her late husband was general secretary of the Association.

In proposing the toast of "The Church" Mr. D. Paul Smith spoke of their good fortune in having as guests Canon D. M. Oldaker, of Sidcup, and the Rev. Bryan Isaac, of Cudham, both of whom were staunch supporters of ringers and most generous in their attitude towards ringing activities in the district. Following on these remarks, Mr. Smith warned ringers of the danger of allowing selfishness to creep in where peal ringing was concerned. Many clergy willingly allowed peals to be rung, sometimes at short notice, yet they were unable to get their bells rung for services. Ringers were reminded that service ringing was their prime function.

Introducing the next speaker the chairman said that there was a belief in his family that the chairman's grandfather had, through a chance conversation with a stranger, been instrumental in having the original five bells at Cudham augmented to the present ten.

FOUR "THANK YOUS"

In his response the Rev. Bryan Isaac said he had four "thank yous" to make to Kent ringers. The first was for keeping Cudham's bells ringing for services as there was no local band. The second was for ringing for pleasure: under this heading he included ringing for weddings, at meetings and at practices. The third "thank you" was for ringing for honour, for muffled peals, tolling passing bells and marking great occasions by special ringing. The final thanks were for regular service ringing and calling the people to worship, also for all that ringers did for the Church in this respect.

The entertainment which then followed was given by the Mackman brothers, of Chilworth in Surrey, who demonstrated their expertise in tune ringing. Their programme of favourite and well-tryed tunes, some of which required ten and 12 bells for their performance, proved to be very popular.

Mr. R. B. Meadows, past Master of the Ancient Society of College Youths, in his speech proposing the toast of "The Association" gave words of encouragement to the officers of the Association. He reminded them that the future of an Association lay with its officers and not with the absentee members who were too busy to attend meetings because they were away either peal ringing or on an outing tower grabbing.

Before inviting Mr. A. S. P. Berry, general secretary of the K.C.A.C.R., to reply the chairman offered congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Berry on their recent marriage.

Prefacing his reply, Mr. Berry said that according to reports of other annual dinners he had concluded that the general secretary usually said little of importance—a remark which provoked much laughter, as the previous general secretary was one of the guests. Mr. Berry then thanked Mr. P. A. Corby very sincerely for all he had done for the Association in his term of office as general secretary. In recognition of these services he had been made a vice-president. Mr. Berry mentioned the deaths of two vice-presidents during the year—Mr. J. Willis, of Folkestone, and Mr. A. G. Hill, of Christ Church, Erith, and of the forms their memorials were to take.

Personal thanks were extended to Mr. W. Hughes, of the Whitechapel Foundry, for his willing co-operation in the work of restoring several rings of bells in the county.

After the final speeches given by Mr. T. Lewis and responded to by Canon Oldaker, the chairman concluded the formal part of the evening by thanking Miss Mary Andrews, Lewisham District secretary, and her committee for making all the arrangements for a very enjoyable evening. P. M. F.

UNIVERSITY OF WALES SOCIETY'S SUMMER TOUR

THIS year's tour—in Derbyshire, Notts and Lincolnshire—started at Breadsall on August 18th, some 21 members and non-members attending during the week. Encouraging was the attendance of past members; to be deplored was that the Colleges at Swansea, Bangor and Cardiff were not represented.

Ringling was of a reasonable standard at Breadsall, although there was an occasional shout from Margaret of "Mind your striking!". Horsley and Belper followed, the incumbent at the latter tower being a past student at St. David's, Lampeter. There was a traditional Chinese meal at Matlock before going to our temporary lodgings at Bakewell, where unfortunately we were unable to ring.

Tuesday was a long day with a circular tour of the Peak District, starting at Tideswell. With relief we left Wormhill without causing damage, even though a number of stays were missing. Fairfield, Hayfield and Hope were in the afternoon's programme. Visitors congregated to watch our efforts at Eyam and Tim Wylie met us at Baslow.

OUR HISTORY

The Jubilee issue of "The Ringing World" (March 24th, 1961) gives an historical survey of the journal and details of those who had taken it for 50 years. Printed on art paper. Price 1s. 6d., from "The Ringing World" Office, c/o Seven Corners Press, Onslow Street, Guildford.

Wednesday brought us into the industrial area, Ashover, Old Whittington, Dronfield, Eckington, Staveley and Bolsover. At the last-mentioned tower members unable to stay the full week rang a quarter peal of Stedman Triples. Evening ringing was at North Wingfield and there was a tasty supper at Bakewell Church Hall.

Thursday was a day of misfortunes, starting at South Normanton, where we had difficulty with the second. At Kirkby-in-Ashfield we could not get into the church; at Mansfield a touch of Yorkshire came to an abrupt end when the rope of the fourth broke, which was a poor way to repay the Vicar and the young ladies for a marvellous buffet lunch. London and Warsaw were rung at Warsop, but Worksop bells were found difficult to handle. We were impressed by the local turn-out for practice at Retford, where Cambridge Royal and Stedman Caters were rung successfully.

Friday's first tower was East Drayton, followed by Tuxford and Sutton-on-Trent, where we were met by the Misses Burch-nall. Grandsire and Stedman Caters and Bob Royal were rung at Newark and then we travelled to Barnby-in-the-Willows and Ossington (the cupboard chamber). It was here we were given a barrel organ and played out of church to the hymn tune "Breathe on me, breath of God".

Saturday started in the Gainsborough area with the business meeting in Dunholme Church vestry. A change of programme brought us to Lincoln Cathedral, the climax of the tour. Unfortunately we did not ring any Maximus, but were content with Grandsire and Stedman Caters and Cambridge Major. At St. Giles', Lincoln, we rang some Triples methods and there was a quick ring at Saxilby.

The last day began for some of us at the celebration of the Eucharist at Retford, while for others it was ringing at Blyth, where another quarter peal was rung. The last lap was at Everton, where after ringing we were entertained to coffee at the Vicarage. The tour had been most beneficial and thoroughly enjoyed by all. Thanks go to Margaret and Sue for their help and guidance and to incumbents and those who met us.

Next meeting, October 25th, in the Swansea area. Details through college secretaries. D. J. M.

ILCHESTER BRANCH OUTING

The Ilchester Branch of the Bath and Wells Diocesan Association held its autumn half-day outing on September 27th. The weather was perfect, as were the excellent "sixes" of Buckland St. Mary, Yarcombe, Up Ottery, Corfe (where a first-rate "high tea" was enjoyed at the local inn), Pitminster and Trull. The Ringing Master, Mr. Gordon Rendell, organised the trip.

On October 4th the Branch visited the pleasant, tuneful, heavy five (tenor 20 cwt.) at High Ham. The evening was enjoyed and a variety of methods rung, including St. Andrew's Bob. (High Ham Church is dedicated to St. Andrew.)

November meetings: 1st, Preston Plucknett, 7-9 p.m.; 22nd, Langport (with H.C.), 6-9 p.m.

TOM LOCK'S PEAL WEEK IN ESSEX

The true spirit of fellowship was well exemplified by the fourth day of this tour, when the organiser had no reason to waver from his usual imperturbable ease. In short, we had the East Anglian Bank Holiday traffic problems to contend with, we had the success of seven-out-of-seven but soon to be only eight-out-of-11 peals attempted, and most unfortunately we had a ringing couple arrive to join the party on the Bank Holiday evening but to be told of a family bereavement which naturally caused their immediate departure. We had come to do our best when ringing and to enjoy each other's company during the off duty periods and this was achieved.

The first band to meet and open the week's programme duly assembled at Rayleigh and enabled Win Keys to conduct her first peal of Cambridge S. Major. The remainder travelled to the county town, Chelmsford, where the Cathedral is identified by its well-proportioned flint and stonedressed tower, on which rests a tall, slender spire. It is dedicated in part to St. Cedd, he being the Saxon bishop who built the first churches in Essex. The resulting peal of Yorkshire S. Maximus was made possible through the generosity of Jim Towler and others, who had received permission to use the bells before tour arrangements were made.

Headquarters were in Chelmsford, and after assisting in Sunday service ringing in nearby towers a band sought out Prittlewell, where a 5,000 of London S. Royal was accomplished. We had the pleasure of being met by the Rev. A. F. Ridley, who at Evensong preached a farewell sermon before his departure to Paulerspury, Northamptonshire.

On the Bank Holiday one band ventured to the ancient Roman stronghold of Colchester, but their efforts in bringing round Spiced S. in four methods prevented them giving much lasting thought to their forbears. Another band went to the village of Ardleigh, with its 15th century tower, in which hangs a bell cast in the years that followed Agincourt, and an extent of Yorkshire S. Major was rung. Later in the day a band met at Great Holland, with its solid red brick tower which is all that remains of the old church. Here Spiced S. in six methods was completed on the eight bells which were placed in the tower by the Barron Bell Trust Fund in memory of its founder, Miss Emma Barron, who died on March 1st, 1930. The other band met at Bishop's Stortford and rang a peal of Yorkshire S. Royal, employing singles at four-and-a-half.

On Tuesday two London S. Major bands went to the towers of Great Dunmow and Harlow; the one at the former church stayed the required 24 courses, but the other stood the bells after 90 minutes due to a shift course. Later at Thaxted Spiced S. in four methods was lost after two hours due to a miscall, and at Epping Yorkshire S. was also lost after two hours due to a rope breaking. Later some of the party were passing through High Ongar and, being called by the sound of bells, were welcomed for the weekly practice.

On Wednesday an attempt to ring Rutland S. at Finchingfield was halted after over one hour owing to indisposition of one of the band. This, however, enabled us to see more of "the prettiest village in Essex" with its large green open spaces on the banks of a river, its houses and cottages of attractive charm and its church with Norman doorways and arches standing high on the hilltop. Hatfield Broad Oak was also visited during the morning, where an extent of Rutland S. was completed without mishap. Following some regrouping of the bands, one attempt for Lincolnshire S. was made at Halstead, but was lost 70 minutes later. Here the 600-year-old church has a 19th century tower, which replaces one that fell and in which is an early 15th century bell and an earthenware pot used since 1658 for the refreshment of the bell-ringers. The other attempt, for Essex S., was made at Harlow Common and was successful.

The next morning over the county boundary, northwards into Suffolk, where the ten bells at Grundisburgh were set going to Yorkshire S. This was the third peal of Royal during the week and each had been comfortably brought round in under three hours, but at no time was the rhythm of the ringing ever in question. At Ufford Rutland S. was lost after only one hour. The afternoon's calls at Kirby-le-Soken (Spiced S. in four methods) and at Great Bentley (Bristol S.) upheld the traditions of the touring party. Through the thoughtful anticipation of Philip Mehew and the local ringers we spent a very pleasant evening really "in the cage" at East Bergholt. Philip had rung on these bells before, and after he had joined the local ringers in a demonstration an invitation was extended and three volunteers acquitted themselves well.

On Friday one band left early to get to Sawbridgeworth, Hertfordshire, to record a peal of Cambridge S., whilst a second band had a shorter journey to Danbury, to the church that stands on the summit of a hill 365 feet high, its spire being a landmark for miles around. Here the conductor made all the bells do all the work of four methods spiced. Later in the day at Goldhanger London S. was attempted, but was lost after one-and-a-half hours owing to a shift course. During the evening the bells at All Saints', Maldon, were rung to the same composition as at Danbury: the church has an unusual mid-13th century triangular tower.

On Saturday the journey was made to Tollesbury, where a peal of Yorkshire S. was rung. The fifth bell of this ring is dated 1604 and was cast by Miles Graye I. The final peal attempt at Waltham Abbey was Cambridge S. Maximus. The ringing never settled down and after about half-an-hour was stopped.

To sum up a thoroughly enjoyable week's tour, we found nothing flat and everything interesting. We thank all incumbents, tower captains and correspondents for the privileges which were afforded us.

Pipe's Pilgrims Tour Kent

This year it was Kent. It had taken us 20 years to make up our minds to visit the lovely Garden of England, and we had been told the majority of the bells were rough and odd-struck and our first sample soon proved that was no overstatement.

Maybe it was good experience for when we came upon such fine bells and easy "go" like those at Frittenden, Salehurst, Fairwarp, Brighton (St. Nicolas'), Sevenoaks, Tonbridge and Wadhurst, it was like a ray of sunshine. But Pipe's Pilgrims tours were never intended for mere tower collecting. We go to enjoy England's delightful countryside; its churches, each one different in structure; for good food and, above all, social companionship.

The Pipes, Arnie Pearce, Vernon Bedford, Alan Munnings and Bob and Joyce Lester were the first to board the coach. At Colchester John and Neil Avis and Bernard Fairhead joined us. At the London pick-up spot, St. Paul's car park, we met Dan Dawson-Taylor, the four Lauds, Ian North, Harold (Vic) Frost, Juliet Stoy, Keith Game, Dorothea Robotham, Dan Godfrey, Tom Clark, Hugh Faulkner, Norman and Elsie Bagworth, Bert and Marion Kynaston.

By permission of Michael Chilcott we climbed the steps to the vast ringing room of St. Paul's Cathedral and heard Stedman Cinques rung for the 10.30 a.m. service, and then on to Gravesend for lunch. Swanscombe, our first tower, was followed by Gravesend and Cliff-at-Hoo (nice old bells).

The Castle Hotel at Tunbridge Wells was home for the six nights' stay and everyone was happy and comfortable.

Monday gave us Benenden, Biddenden, Headcorn, Frittenden, Goudhurst, Horsmonden and Wadhurst, and on Tuesday we visited Brightling, Hailsham, Uckfield, Buxted and Rotherfield.

Wednesday saw us at Hawkhurst, Hastings (three towers), Battle and Salehurst and next day at Fairwarp, Fletching, Brighton (St. Nicolas'), Hurstpierpoint, Bolney and Cuckfield.

Turner's Hill, Crawley, Bletchingley, Sevenoaks, Tonbridge and Speldhurst were Friday's venues, and Saturday, our last day, was spent at Sittingbourne, Rainham, Chatham and Frindsbury.

Space does not permit more details of the splendid churches we visited nor all the grand people we met and to whom we tender our sincere thanks.

It was extremely kind of Phil, Lucille, Andrew and Judith Corby all to turn out to meet and ring with us on their fine new bells, which we greatly enjoyed.

So ended another jolly week.

A PILGRIM.

PEAL AND QUARTER PEAL CARDS

Comment

THROWING DOWN THE GAUNTLET

Amidst the amazing spate of peals that has resulted in "The Ringing World" having some 150 peals in hand when we went to press with our last issue it is refreshing to find that one ringer has sufficient courage to announce that a peal be rang in during a tour when 22 peals were claimed was not of the standard required by the Central Council's definition of a true peal.

The ringer in question, Mr. Christopher I. Rowson, had previously written to the Editor asking him not to publish a peal of Plain Bob Major rung at Melbourne, Derbyshire, because it was not in his opinion a true peal. The Editor is not the arbiter as to what constitutes a true peal: that responsibility rests with the Central Council, working through the Peals Analysis Committee and in some cases the Records Committee. Until a peal is published its authenticity cannot be challenged publicly.

The next step is for Mr. Rowson to write to the Convener of the Peals Analysis Committee and the secretary of the Derby Diocesan Association, submitting details of his claim that the peal was not in accordance with the Decisions of the Council. It is customary when an Association receives such a challenge to a peal to refer it to a committee or officers of the Association, and the conclusion reached reported to the Peals Analysis Committee. Piquancy is added to the situation by the general secretary of the Derby Diocesan Association being a member of the peal band!

We feel that when individual members take a pride in their peals and courageously come forward and announce their opinion to the detriment of their own peal total the outcome will be a higher standard. Looking ahead, the day might come when the principle of umpires checking record length peals might well be universally accepted by peal ringers.

SUFFOLK GUILD

About 40 members and friends attended the September meeting of the South and East District at Clopton.

Many subjects were discussed at the business meeting. Mr. G. W. Pipe spoke on silent bells. Where these occurred he felt that members should tell the P.C.C.s that bells should not be left to decay. Very often a little job could save a heavy expense later.

Mr. Pipe also appealed to members keen on peal ringing to raise the peal fee to 1/6. "The Ringing World" consisted of almost half of peals or quarter peals and help to the finances in this way would enable the journal to remain solvent.

FABIAN STEDMAN COMPETITION

COLIN J. E. WYLD

Owing to circumstances beyond our control we have not been able to publish before details of the entries of the winner and joint seconds in this competition, but now give the place notations of Mr. Colin J. E. Wyld (one of the second prize winners), conceived when he was 16 years of age, and also some biographical details.

Colin was born in 1950 at Wye, near Ashford, Kent, and learnt to ring under his father in 1963, scoring his first peal (one of Minor in two methods) in 1965. He has rung many more since, up to Spliced Surprise Major. He gained four G.C.E. "A" levels from the Simon Langton Grammar School and is now at Oxford University completing his studies.

BATH AND WELLS ASSOCIATION

Puriton was the host on October 4th for the autumn meeting of the Bridgwater Branch, and when ringing started at 3 p.m. the bells had already been warmed up by the locals who had been ringing for a wedding. The church, including the ringing chamber, was decorated for harvest festival, and some 38 ringers attended the service conducted by Rev. A. Beck. An interesting address was given concerning the importance of order with regard to ringing, and two harvest hymns were then rung on handbells by the Polden Handbell Ringers, based in the village. At the school tea had been prepared, and was used for the meeting, at which a vote of thanks to the Vicar, to Mr. Dyke (organist), the choir, Mr. Pope and to Mrs. Bawden for preparing the tea was passed. The silent towers committee asked for support for Monday practices at Shapwick and Moorlynch to help train bands, and it was noted that two of the committee had taught a band at Chedzoy who were ringing for service next day. Five new members were elected—four from Ashcott and Mrs. Beck (the Vicar's wife), from Puriton. A proposal that the Association A.G.M. should return to Easter Monday would be pursued at the meeting in 1970. Elly and Geoff Marchant were thanked for organising the outing, which had been a great success.

Ringing continued until 9 p.m., various methods being rung. Practices for the next quarter: Woolavington (November 19th) and Wembdon (December 3rd).

Chew Deanery Branch

The September quarterly meeting at Chew gave the Branch an opportunity of thanking the Vicar (Rev. C. M. Luxmoore Bell) for his help and encouragement to the Branch. He has received preferment to Butleigh.

A splendid tea, prepared by Mrs. Bishop and helpers, followed the service, and the Vicar presided at the business meeting in the unavoidable absence of the chairman. Mr. B. Fry was elected a non-resident life member.

The new rules, due to operate in 1971, were briefly explained by the general secretary, who gave an assurance that they would be circulated in good time for discussion before the 1970 A.G.M. at Bath.

Mr. Horseman outlined arrangements for the inter Branch striking competition on November 8th in the Bridgwater area. He also spoke of the death of Mr. A. R. Saye, a very faithful Sunday service ringer at Portbury, who came to Somerset from Calne.

In conclusion, the secretary was asked to convey thanks to Mr. T. W. White, the "R.W." retiring editor, and to wish him a long and happy retirement.

SALISBURY DIOCESAN GUILD

Marlborough Branch

There was an excellent attendance at Aldbourne on September 20th, when the Marlborough Branch met for its monthly get-together. Besides Branch members visitors were present from Swindon, Southampton, Wroughton, Rodbourne Cheney and Chippenham.

Some good touches in a variety of methods were rung, under the direction of Mr. A. Keen (Ringing Master), until the Guild service, which was conducted by the Vicar (Rev. P. Chapman), who gave an address based on the history of the bells. Tea, prepared and served by Mrs. R. Jones and Mrs. G. Newman, was served on the Vicarage lawn.

At the business meeting the chairman (Mr. G. Newman) presided and gave details of the Branch outing on September 27th. Ringing was then resumed at St. Michael's, with its majestic tower and tuneful ring of eight. W.A.E.

LETTERS

FINDING RINGERS FOR ALBURGH BELLS

Dear Sir,—I was delighted to learn from Mr. Flatt's letter that local interest in Alburgh bells has been stirred up by our recent efforts in this direction, as this is just what I hoped might happen. Perhaps I could point out, however, that apart from the fact that there is no local band at Alburgh, the Rector was under the impression that the tower and fittings of the bells were not in a sufficiently safe condition to allow ringing to take place at all. When approaches were made to him by myself, on behalf of a number of keen ringers from the area, to allow a check over of the condition of the bells, tower movement, etc., he was delighted to allow this, and equally delighted, I know, to learn that the bells could be safely rung—after several hours of work by these same keen ringers.

Our successful peal attempt and the "open ringing day" on the occasion of the Church Flower Festival did indeed arouse great interest in the village—it is rather a pity that more Southern Branch members were not able to come along on the open day—as did the ringing for the concluding Evensong of the Festival.

In the penultimate paragraph of my article on Alburgh bells, I did in fact express the hope that regular service ringing there might soon be possible—quite obviously, this must be the first aim. But it is far from easy for visiting ringers to be there on Sundays, as their first loyalty must be to their own towers; my mention of peal attempts and outing parties was made

"NO PEAL" SAYS RINGER

Dear Sir,—I must protest about the report on page 791 of a peal at Melbourne, Derbyshire, on August 20th. As I explained in a letter to your predecessor shortly after this date, no peal was rung, "within the Central Council's definition of the term." The ringing was in any case of far too low a standard, and I cannot have my name associated with any attempt to dignify this shameful performance with the name of a peal.—Yours faithfully,

CHRISTOPHER I. ROWSON.

Maidenhead.

WANTS KILIFI MEETING

Dear Sir,—I was interested to read about recent visits to Kilifi. I was there in May and felt sorry that so little could be done to help. If all ringers in East Africa will contact me I shall act as co-ordinator in trying to arrange a meeting at Kilifi to do some ringing (perhaps only a quarter peal in that heat) and teaching.

Also if anyone is near enough to Iganga, or is passing through and would like to do some handbell ringing, he would be more than welcome.—Yours faithfully, because the more frequently a previously silent ring (silent for some 17 years) can be rung, the more local interest in the bells will be aroused.

L. BOUMPHREY.

Bishop Willis College,
P.O. Box 150, Iganga, Uganda.

The problem of training new local bands from scratch is always very difficult, unless there are one or two experienced change ringers nearby who are able to undertake the training, and I can fully appreciate the difficulties which Mr. Flatt mentions... but it CAN be done. In our own Branch, through the hard work of Mr. K. L. Brown and others, regular ringing has restarted at Blofield and Ludham, and ringers are now being trained for Ranworth—all of these were silent or nearly silent towers. I know I speak for all of us in the Eastern Branch when I say that we will do all we can to help at Alburgh—I have already offered to Mr. Close to come to Alburgh to talk to any potential recruits for the tower—but most ringers are, of course, already committed to Sunday ringing at their own towers. As priest-in-charge of a church with only one bell, Sunday ringing is normally impossible for me.

I do hope very much that it will be possible to arrange at least monthly service ringing at Alburgh and, as I say, I am sure that we shall give every possible support to Mr. Flatt that we can—let us hope that Sunday ringing at more frequent intervals may be possible, and that a local band for Alburgh can be started; it is much to be hoped, too, that the Southern Branch of the Association, in whose area both Alburgh and Redenhall towers are situated, will also rally round to help—we already have far too many silent and unringable towers in Norfolk.—Yours sincerely,

PETER N. BOND, Chairman,
Eastern Branch, Norwich Diocesan Assoc.

RHODESIAN RINGER'S APPRECIATION

Dear Sir,—I have just returned home after spending three months in Britain on holiday, during which time I was able to ring on 21 occasions in various parts of the country. I should like to express my very sincere thanks to all the ringers I met for their help and friendliness—coming from a country with just two towers and a total of less than 20 active ringers you can imagine what an unforgettable experience it was.

Everywhere I went I was made most welcome and there was no reluctance, even on the part of the most experienced ringers, to ring the simple methods for my benefit. Due to their efforts I have learnt to ring a new method, revived a forgotten one and increased my rope-sight from six bells to eight, all of which should now help to improve the standard of ringing in my home tower.

I should like to offer a special word of appreciation to the ringers of Silverdale (Lancs) and Windsor Parish Church, where I was able to take part in quarter peals during their practice times.—Yours sincerely,

FRANCES PELLATT.

METHOD NOMENCLATURE

Dear Sir,—During the debate on the "Floral" Minor names at the Central Council meeting at Hereford in 1928, one of the Chester Guild's representatives, Mr. Elwell, caused some amusement by remarking that this dead horse had been flogged more than any other dead horse he had ever met. The extraordinary thing about it was that each time it was flogged it managed to gallop half-way up the hill before it dropped again.

My colleague, Mr. Arthur Whiting, seems keen to whip poor old Daisy into a trot once again. And after 40 years of apparently false security too.

There would seem to be only one possible ground for reviving these names: that the Norbury band that had first used them refused to acknowledge the Council's right to rename them. There was some discussion at the Hereford meeting as to whether the Council did in fact have such a right, and John S. Goldsmith (who had moved the motion) suggested that as the names had originally been allocated, not by the Norbury band, but by a committee of the Council, then the Council did. The Council giveth, the Council taketh away...

Be that as it may, the motion was passed by 40 votes to 19. And on September 21st, 1928, "The Ringing World" published a letter signed by James Fernley "for the Norbury company," in which he wrote that "in the interests of ringing we have decided to abide loyally by the terms of the resolution, and to accept the new designations in the future."

Sir, could the horsewhip now be laid quietly to rest beside this particular dead horse?—Yours faithfully,

CYRIL A. WRATTEN.

Charlton Kings, Glos.

METHOD NOMENCLATURE

Dear Sir,—I accept Mr. Whiting's proof that the "1922 Analysis Committee" gave the "Flower" names to nine methods. I must confess I did not know they had done so. The reason why I said the "35 Method Peal" was "neutralised" was on account of the attitude of many six-bell ringers of that period; they were of the same opinion as myself that by altering the names of methods future ringers could well ask "What methods did the Norbury men ring?" They did not wish to ring peals which in later years could be questioned.

Harold Chant's mention of Wath-on-Dearne brought back some happy memories: ringing with Arthur Panther, Arthur Gill and Albert Nash who, with his crippled hands, could handle a bell with the best. That band could strike and I should imagine that as far as striking went Harold will agree they set a pattern for his, and Dan Smith's, very high standard. It is nice to know the Felkirk men used "Method Splicing." Many said it was not even suitable for "Army Form blank."—Yours faithfully,

JOHN P. FIDLER.

Trevor Bailey's Somerset Tour

Based in the West Country, proceedings commenced on the evening of August 15th at the Swan and Castle Hotel, Buckingham, where participants converged, and the pattern for the week was set by half of the party having a meal in the Old Gaol! Ringing first took place on the following morning on the fine heavy eight at Buckingham Parish Church, and we then journeyed westwards through the holiday traffic to Wincanton, some of the more enterprising spirits managing to get a pull at Christ Church, Swindon, en route. At Wincanton the party was further augmented by Rosemary Spicer and Michael Worthington and we settled to enjoy a very pleasant Gillett and Johnston octave, after which we investigated the potency of the local cider.

The next morning we were permitted to ring on the ten at Evercreech at the conclusion of morning service, and here we were joined by Mr. Harry Sanger. After a visit to the King Charles we joined the local ringers at Wells Cathedral to ring for Evensong. The remainder of the afternoon was spent on a visit to the famous Wookey Hole Caves, and the spectacular Cheddar Gorge, that other marvel of the Mendips, was viewed in brilliant sunshine before evening ringing on the eight at Cheddar.

The following day was the busiest of the week, four towers being visited. We began at Chewton Mendip before moving on to Wrington, Mr. W. H. Kingcott meeting us and joining in for some Cambridge Royal. At Congresbury some difficulty was experienced in getting the tenor up right side but once this was accomplished the usual repertoire was rung on this fine-toned, heavy ring, and our final tower of the day was at Yatton. Most of the party then adjourned to Bristol for a meal and some ten-pin bowling.

Tuesday's ringing began on the six at Brent Knoll and we were grateful for being able to ring here at short notice. Lunch was taken in Bridgwater before heading for Dunster, where we found the brand new eight, and soon made our way to Minehead for ringing on the light ten. The following day was the traditional free day, and this included paddling from Minehead beach before viewing the site of the Battle of Sedgemoor near Weston Zoyland. Others visited King Alfred's Fort at Burrow Bridge and an indomitable few conquered Glastonbury Tor with its fine view of Somerset and neighbouring counties. In the evening we joined in the practice at St. Cuthbert's, Wells, the bells being fully muffled because of local complaints.

Thursday was peal day, but first we set off to sample the heavy six at West Pennington. A peal in seven methods was successfully rung at St. Benedict's, Glastonbury, and the evening's entertainment took the form of a skittles match. A delightful ride through the narrow lanes of Mid-Somerset brought us to Queen Camel next morning and further heavy bells awaited us at Sherborne Abbey in the afternoon. A social evening was spent in Sherborne before the last full day of the tour, which began with the long drive to Marlborough. Another long drive was to Witney and later a few attended the practice at Appleton, whilst the remainder tried their skill at punting on the Cherwell. At our hotel we presented Trevor Bailey with a small token of our gratitude for arranging the tour before finally parting at mid-day on Sunday at Bladon, where we had made a pilgrimage to Sir Winston Churchill's grave. Our thanks to all who made bells available, and we look forward to the reunion in the winter.

HERTS COUNTY ASSOCIATION

The meeting of the St. Albans District was held at St. Paul's Walden and King's Walden on September 20th. A slow start was made at St. Paul's Walden, on an anti-clockwise six, in the afternoon, but a good touch was rung before the service, conducted by the Vicar, Rev. T. Lewis Lloyd. Tea, prepared by the ladies of the local band, was served in the "local" close to the church. During the business meeting the secretary gave details of the 1970 ringing course and details of an assisted practice scheme at Radlett, starting on October 1st, were given. A collection taken for the V.B.F. realised £1 13s. 7d. Evening ringing followed on the six at King's Walden, some finding the long draught difficult.

Next meeting, Welwyn, October 18th. Next special practice, St. Paul's Walden, October 30th.

TRURO DIOCESAN GUILD

The autumn festival of the Penzance Branch was held at Tuckingmill on October 11th and was attended by some 60 ringers. The service was conducted by the Vicar (Rev. J. F. Edwards), after which a delicious tea was provided by the ladies, to whom appreciation was shown.

At the A.G.M. a minute's silence was observed to the memory of Miss Wintle, formerly of Mullion, who died earlier this year and who had been a ringer for many years. Congratulations were offered to Mr. A. H. Hitchens, of Ludgvan, on his appointment as a magistrate, and the next festival was provisionally arranged for April 25th, 1970, at Lelant. Ringing also took place at Camborne, Crowan and Gwinear.

Reuben Clench, expressed his delight at the large number of ringers present and thanked the Vicar for his warm welcome to Blaenavon and also for so expertly directing the business of the meeting. Replying, the Vicar said he had enjoyed the meeting immensely and hoped that Blaenavon would be visited again in the not-too-distant future.

Mention was made of the next meeting, to be held at Chepstow on January 10th, 1970.

A RECORD—FOR THREE DAYS!

The friendly rivalry that exists between two well-known handbell teams at Marple and Watford has delighted the Exercise for some time, and their efforts to outdo one another have culminated in one record made on the Monday by one team being broken on the Thursday by the other!

Mr. John R. Mayne successfully conducted his Watford handbell team on October 6th in a peal of Spiced Surprise Maximus in EIGHT methods, to create a new record on handbells—a record which existed for just three days, for the Marple team, under their conductor, Mr. Robert B. Smith, ousted Watford by ringing one in TEN methods on the following Thursday!

At the time of going to press we have not heard the date of the new attempt at Watford to regain the rosette, but everyone will eagerly await such an event. Ringers everywhere will join with us in extending hearty congratulations to both teams on their outstanding achievements.

LLANDAFF AND MONMOUTH DIOCESAN ASSOCIATION

The Monmouth Branch held a very enjoyable meeting at St. Peter's, Blaenavon, on October 11th, when the eight bells were well used from early afternoon by a gathering of "all sorts and conditions" of ringers, numbering between 60 and 70! The new Vicar of Blaenavon (Rev. R. C. Wright) conducted the service, assisted by the curate (Rev. R. Courage). Miss Elaine Davage, a Blaenavon ringer, read the lesson and Mr. Gordon Jones, in one of his many rôles, played the organ, which produced singing that had a quality of hearty enthusiasm! Tea was served in the Church School by Mrs. Wright and helpers and they were thanked by Mr. Alan Paton, and Mr. Brian Neale expressed the thanks of the gathering to Mr. Gordon Jones for his encouraging music.

The business was short and ably conducted by the Vicar in the chair, and new members were again numerous, including both the Vicar and the curate of Blaenavon, together with Mr. Eric Robinson. From Bassaleg came Mr. Richard Cox, Mr. Christopher Jones and Mr. Raymond Barnes; from Caerleon Miss Gillian Steele, Miss Georgina Douglas and Miss Jane Williams; from Usk (at last!) Miss Gillian Clench; from Mitcheldean Mr. Ralph Davies and Master Rowland Smith; and finally Rev. R. N. Thomas, Vicar of St. Julian's, Newport. Thus history was made in two parts, the Vicar and curate of the parish being elected to membership together and three clerical gentlemen made members at one meeting!

Mr. Brian Neal was congratulated on his fine work in producing a band of ringers at Marshfield and the Branch Master, Mr.

OBITUARY

MR. B. S. THOMPSON

The Norwich Diocesan Association has lost one of its oldest members by the death, on September 11th, of Benjamin S. Thompson at the age of 85. Born at Kelsale in Suffolk he learned to ring at an early age, with his three brothers, under the tuition of their father. His work as a railway clerk soon took him further afield and he became well-known in ringing circles in Essex and London, ringing quite a lot with the famous Pye brothers, and also at Birmingham and Norwich. Then in the First World War he served in France in the Rifle Brigade, attaining the rank of Captain, and suffered from severe gas-poisoning.

After the war he returned to railway service in Norwich and was one of the band of enthusiastic ringers who, under the leadership of the late George H. Cross, revived ringing in Norfolk in the 1920's, and became Master at St. Peter Mancroft 1935-36. Then ill-health, as a result of his war injuries, caused his early retirement and curtailment of ringing activities, but his enthusiasm never flagged and he attended meetings whenever possible.

For the last fifteen years he resided at Lowestoft and, although failing sight became another handicap, he remained very cheerful, and often attended practices there and was taking part in ringing only a few days prior to his rather sudden death from heart failure. He was very fond of reminiscing of his early ringing days and of the old ringers he knew, and his tales and company will be much missed by all who knew him. His ringing papers and records were lost in the Norwich "blitz" but he reckoned that he had rung about 400 peals in all.

His cremation at Gorleston was attended by representatives from neighbouring towers, and handbells were rung at the committal.

E.R.G.

MR. C. ERNEST SMITH

A contemporary of the late Alfred H. Pulling and Oliver Sippetts, Mr. C. E. Smith, of 94, Busbridge Lane, Godalming, died in Milford Chest Hospital on October 6th at the age of 65. Ernie was, in his heyday, a prolific peal ringer and had rung well over 500 before business commitments curtailed this activity. For a short period he was Ringing Master of the Guildford District of the Guildford Diocesan Guild and a member of the committee. The bells of Godalming Parish Church were rung half-muffled on the day of the funeral.

CORRECTIONS

The peal at Bolsover reported on page 791 was rung on August 23rd and the ringer of the 3rd was Timothy Wylie.

The handbell peal at Derby on August 30th was rung in not on the canal—the canal being dry at the time!

The handbell peal rung on the M1 on August 25th was also reported on page 738.

The peal of Lincolnshire S. Major rung at Putney and published on page 794 consisted of 5,088 changes and not 5,040 as published. This was, incidentally, the 175th peal on the bells.

STRIKING COMPETITIONS

ANDOVER DISTRICT

The Andover District held its annual striking competition at Goodworth Clatford on October 4th. Mr. Reg Rex, of Thatcham, the judge, in his comments stressed the need for good treble and tenor ringers.

Winners.—Aird Cup (change-ringing): Highclere, second Andover, five competing. Fred Gosling Cup (rounds): Upper Clatford, six competing.

A service held in Goodworth Clatford Church was conducted by the Vicar and the splendid tea was provided by Mrs. Richardson and Clatford Young Wives.

The business meeting was opened by the chairman asking members to stand in memory of the late Fred Gosling, a respected member. On a happier note the chairman informed the meeting that Mrs. Dobson, of Longparish, was celebrating her 44th wedding anniversary and Mr. Jack Wimlett, of Andover, his 33rd wedding anniversary. M.G.

BATH DISTRICT

Ten teams entered for this year's striking competition held at Marksbury (6) on October 4th. Judges were the "Chew Branch Twins"—Michael Horseman and John Brain. The two teams entered by St. Michael with St. Paul's finished first and second, with Bath Abbey third and Corston fourth.

The Vicar (Rev. W. C. Mason) conducted a short service and presented the Branch shield. For the excellent tea in Corston Village Hall we thank Mrs. Parfrey. A.F.L.

BELFRY GOSSIP

Mr. Bernard Grove is moving from Marple to Reading at the end of October and will be a big loss to ringing at Marple. Bernard's latest feat is ringing in a peal of 10-Spliced Surprise Maximus "in hand" (a record number).

In memory of Mr. H. O. Baker, who died suddenly on September 14th, a half-muffled peal of Minor was rung at Davenham, Cheshire, on the 22nd. Mr. Baker was outstanding as hon. secretary and treasurer of the Chester Diocesan Guild.

A similar peal on September 27th was completed at Pebmarsh, Essex, as a memorial to Mr. Frank Claydon, who at 88 was a life member of the Essex Association, which he joined in 1907. He died on September 25th. The band which rang the peal are grateful to Mr. George Trendle for his help in preparation for the peal.

Mrs. Agnes Muncaster, of Hawkshead, Lancs, recently celebrated her 100th birthday, and in honour of the occasion a peal of Plain Bob Major was rung at the local tower on September 28th, the eve of St. Michael's Day, St. Michael being the patron saint of the church.

A quarter of Plain Bob Minor was rung at the wedding of Miss Margaret Utting and Mr. Michael Utton at Kessingland, Suffolk, on September 13th. It was rung by an all-local band, with congratulations to Desmond and Philip Harrold on taking part and ringing their first quarter at first attempt.

The golden wedding celebrations of Mr. and Mrs. Trevor Marks were enlivened by a peal of Bob Major at South Petherton, Som., on September 23rd, and the next day at Hindley, Lancs, the captain of the local company and his wife (Mr. and Mrs. J. Halsall) were similarly honoured by one of Grandsire Triples.

Recently Mr. W. Butler took a party of Thatcham, Berks, ringers up to Loughborough to see their two new trebles cast. It proved to be a most interesting day out and one which all enjoyed. On the way home they called at Launton, had a ring on the bells and a trip around Mr. Sharpe's "den", which has now been enlarged to accommodate the Central Council library. "I don't know how he finds time for all his work!" quotes Mr. Butler.

A dual purpose for ringing the peal of Yorkshire at Westhoughton, Lancs, on September 27th, was the 18th birthday of the conductor, Mr. J. E. Andrews, and the fact that he is now a student at London University.

Wedding peals were rung on September 3rd at Elstow, Beds, for Miss M. Pettitt and Mr. J. Clarke; on September 20th at Southampton for Roger Heyworth and Adrienne Gibson (married at Epsom); and on September 27th at Hawley, Hants, for Mr. and Mrs. B. Holliday.

Handbells and bell ropes were an unusual feature of the decorations outside the church porch when Penny Miller and Clive Kessel, both local ringers, were married at St. Giles' Church, West Bridgford, Nottingham, earlier this year. The decorations were arranged by Mr. Wilfred Ratcliffe, the tower keeper.

The bells at Ludham, Norfolk, were rung for the Harvest Festival service on October 5th for the first time for many years. The company—R. Osborne 1, Mrs. J. Clarke 2, D. Mattocks 3, N. Boldy 4, N. Gower (captain) 5—is thought to be the first local company to include a lady ringing on this heavy five.

Fifty years as a ringer at Chatteris, Mr. William Seekings' service was marked by his friends with a peal of Minor, rung at March, Cambs, on September 13th, and the ringing friends of Mr. H. S. Cooper, of Hindley, Lancs, rang one of Grandsire Triples to mark a similar record on September 24th.

The Rev. and Mrs. Alan Beck, who recently moved from Crookham, near Aldershot, and where Mrs. Beck took an active ringing interest in the area, were welcomed to Puriton, Somerset, on August 2nd by a peal of Doubles. The church in their new living is to be restored and efforts are being made to raise funds for that purpose.

Seven towers were visited by Twerton-on-Avon (Bath) ringers on their annual outing, held in glorious weather on September 20th. These were Norton, Ombersley, Hartlebury, Kidderminster, Hallow, Powick and Upton-on-Severn, and the organiser is grateful to the incumbents and ringers at these churches for their consideration.

COCKCROFT SOCIETY IN SCOTLAND

A visit to the Edinburgh Festival was an added attraction to the participants in the tour to Scotland at the end of August, organised by Mr. Harry Wells and others, for the Cockcroft Society (the employees of the U.K.A.E.A. establishments) who recently formed an Association (see "R.W.", page 601). A minibus and private cars conveyed the ringers and others to a caravan site on the banks of Loch Leven, Kinross, and found the Scottish Highlands, its towns (and shopping), castles and lochs most interesting and refreshing. Certain difficulties were experienced in obtaining permission (and keys) at some of the towers before the actual organised part of the tour commenced, but generally all was satisfactory.

The towers where ringing took place included St. Cuthbert's Church and St. Mary's Cathedral, Edinburgh; St. James', Leith; Alloa, Dunblane Cathedral, St. Paul's Episcopal Cathedral and the Old Steeple, Dundee; Fettes College and St. Mary's Cathedral, Glasgow. Two thousand miles were traversed and a good deal of Scottish history digested. There was a wealth of good company, some good ringing on fine bells and kindness and good humour abounded, all of which enhanced the success of the tour and the certainty of a similar function next year.

A WORTHWHILE EFFORT

The "First Peal Week" of the Suffolk Guild, which took place from September 20th-27th, was organised with one object in view: to get as many "firsts" in as possible; and as can be seen from the footnotes under the 13 peals recorded the aim was very successful. Congratulations to all concerned.

DOUBLE EVENT RECOGNISED

Two days after taking up his duty as editor of this journal Mr. C. W. Denyer was installed as Worshipful Master of the Wm. Cobbett Lodge of Freemasons at Farnham, Surrey. To mark the occasion and in honour of his appointment to this ringing office a peal attempt was made at Aldershot by eight brother Masons, culled from a wide area. Unfortunately this was not successful, but a quarter was brought home and later the team, together with many other ringing Freemasons, took part in the ceremony of installation, followed by an excellent repast. The Master's song, sung by Bro. Harold Cole, was accompanied by piano and handbells. Altogether a most convivial evening.

MR. FRANK CLAYDON

News has just been received of the death, on September 26th, of Mr. Frank Claydon, of Earls Colne, Essex, at the age of 88, and whose funeral took place on October 1st. A full report and an appreciation will appear in our next issue.

PETERBOROUGH ST. MARY'S IN SHAKESPEARE COUNTRY

"We'll go to Shakespeare country for our annual whole day outing," said the Ringing Master. "It will do you all good to have a two-and-a-half-hour's drive before starting at the first tower at 9.30 a.m." Alarm and despair all round and wild talk of buying alarm clocks, etc. Then reprieve at the last moment when we were refused permission at the first tower—so we hope Holy Trinity, Stratford-on-Avon, don't feel they spoiled our outing by delaying for several weeks their reply to our request for the bells; nor were we upset to get a refusal signed by the tower secretary the day after permission to ring had been granted by the priest-in-charge. No tears were shed when our request for clarification of the position brought no response—we were too relieved at the prospect of an extra hour in bed. It was not very helpful though.

We began September 27th at "Drunken Bideford", a nice church set in a pretty spot on the banks of the Avon. We hope none of the villagers had indulged in an evening's drinking, as practised by Shakespeare and his companions, for our ringing would not have helped a sore head at all. In fact our senior ringer threatened to go home if we didn't improve. Happily our next tower, at Great Hampton, was without doubt the best of the day and we really enjoyed ourselves.

Every member of our party of 25 had a good lunch at Evesham before visiting the bell tower, where we amazed ourselves by ringing a plain course of Plain Bob Royal. No one was surprised when we managed to raise the tenor wrong side, and then could not set it. From Evesham to a nice eight at Hinton-on-the-Green and then the sixes at Ashton-under-Hill and Ashchurch, where we picnicked under the "conker" trees.

Our last tower was Tewkesbury Abbey, where we managed to fall the back ten very nicely. During the day we rang a wide variety of methods, under the capable guidance of Ann Smith and Frank Sismey, and our thanks to all incumbents and especially to those local ringers who met us and made us so welcome.

THIS YEAR'S GRANTLEY HALL COURSE

The tenth annual week-end residential course in bellringing at the West Riding Adult College, Grantley Hall, Ripon, will be held from November 14th-16th.

The lecturers—Mr. F. Sharpe, Mr. Wilfrid Moreton, Mr. Nolan Golden and Mr. Norman Chaddock—will offer a wide range of topics. Tutorials will cater for students' personal needs. Parallel elementary and advanced lectures are planned and special attention will be given to teaching aspects along the lines of the new Tutor's Handbook. Handbells and local towers will be used for practical sessions.

TOM BEVAN'S BIRTHDAY

The quarter peal rung at St. Stephen's, Hampstead, on October 11th, coincided with the birthday of Mr. Tom Bevan, and the band wish to associate the quarter with this occasion. After ringing the band were entertained to a lavish tea, provided by Tom and Daisy, who had previously warned the ringers "No quarter, no tea"; however, the outcome was never in doubt. Birthday greetings and good wishes were expressed with the hope of seeing them both around for many years to come, and thanks were extended to Miss Julie Armstrong who, owing to the indisposition of one of the original band, was "roped in" at the last minute.

"OUR CHURCH BELLS—WHY AND HOW WE RING THEM"

The best possible way to advertise your hobby is to get out amongst people and talk about it to them. This is just what is being done by the Christchurch Branch of the Winchester and Portsmouth Diocesan Guild. On Thursday, October 23rd, and continuing again a week later, Mr. Arthur V. Davis, captain of the Priory company, visited St. Thomas's Parish Hall, Lymington, to lecture and demonstrate on church bellringing. He was assisted by other ringers (no doubt his family being included!) and Christchurch Girl Guides proved their abilities on handbells.

PIPE'S PILGRIMS

Pilgrims? How got they that title? Well, at Glastonbury in 1950 one or two were waiting in the lounge of the George Hotel for the visitors to arrive. When the coach drew up someone exclaimed: "What's this lot?" and a local wag loudly replied: "Oh, another lot of pilgrims."
